

Fun times in Ohsweken

A five-member team from Red Wing Construction was one of 10 entries in the Six Nations bed race held in Ohsweken on Wednesday. Crowds lined the main street between the Baptist church and community centre to watch participants speed

Wayne Roper, Expositor Staff
along the mile-long course. Race organizer Penny Greene said the event was arranged to provide the community with some fun. Teams had a minimum of five members and a maximum of eight. May 23/90