

Canada Pension Plan (cont'd)

How many immigrants enjoying the benefits of the C.P.P. have brought to this country their land or their living?

If our rights are continuing to be whittled away we'll end up like the hospital - a million dollar building - full of emptiness! W.J.

Committee Meeting

An interesting second meeting of the Committee of Social Action for Indians of the Americas was held in the Brant Historical Building, Charlotte St. Brantford on Sunday evening. The speakers were Mrs. Harry Shock, Chicago - off the cuff, Mr. Andrew Jamieson, Indian thought and philosophy; Mr. A. Hill, our heritage. Discussions followed the speakers.

The Brantfordladies served a delicious lunch and a social time was enjoyed by all.

Chiefswood Indian Village

A meeting of the committee of the Chiefswood Indian Village Park was held at the David Thomas Memorial Hall on Monday evening last. The President, Mr. Andrew Jamieson, B.S.A. opened the meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Miss J. L. Jamieson.

It was decided to replace all transplanted shrubs and trees that did not survive the winter. The craft house will be used as a museum with admission of 25¢ to be charged. Crafts owned by individuals to be sold outside. A request was made concerning the giving of an Indian name to a certain white man whom no one knew. It was agreed by the committee that it was not their place to bestow an Indian name on anyone.

There was a discussion concerning a ferry on the Grand at Chiefswood. One is expected to be completed early this summer.

Light refreshments were served by the ladies after the meeting.
