

The North American Indian Club of Buffalo

Tekawennake has been highly complimented to receive information of this beneficent Indian Club in the U.S.A.

The North American Indian Club of Buffalo has been inaugurated for some time. Mr. James Martin Sr. is the president and Mrs. Gordon Farmer Jr. is the secretary. At present there are some 70 members from various reserves - Cattaragus, Six Nations, New Credit, St. Regis, Muncey, Oneida, Tonawanda and others.

The club began as a social gathering and members enjoyed companionable activities such as bowling, dancing etc and now participate with a float in the Indian Day Celebration.

In 1967 a definite constitution was drawn up and voted on and the club broadened out with a humanitarian project and instituted an Indian Scholarship Fund. This fund is utilized to assist worthy Indian students in higher education. The winners are decided by the educational authorities.

Winners of the 1968 scholarships are Vicky Martin, daughter of the late Garland Martin, and Sheila Bennett, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth Bennett of Cattaragus.

Previous winners were Michelle Burnham, Alvie Thomas, Keith Doxdator and Joan Tobicoe.

Five Cent New Lacrosse Stamp

The oldest organized sport in North America is recognized by this new Canada Post Office Lacrosse Stamp designed in yellow background with orange and shades of black figures.

Baggataway, more of a battle training than sport for tribal warriors (so it appears to outsiders) was played by Indians in our country before Columbus completed his famous voyage to North America in 1492.

We firmly believe the game was a means of working off excess energy which is practiced to this day. This was noted on a day's visit to a Longhouse ceremony largely attended. Come three o'clock, all were ready for a change. The young people all went outside and participated in a strenuous game of touch football, for an hour. The winning side were rewarded with delicious scones which all enjoyed. The elders watched the entire proceedings.

All entered, took their seats quietly, and the meeting again proceeded in perfect order.

Today's Box Lacrosse, played in enclosed arenas, evolved from a native pastime in which as many as one thousand men played in a field sometimes five miles in length.

First day of sale for the Lacrosse stamp was 3rd July, 1968.

Six Nations NewsSour Springs Women's Institute

Mrs. Eldon Hill presided at the July meeting of the Sour Springs Women's Institute which was held at the Temperance Hall R.R. 6 Hagersville.

The hostess was Mrs. Peter Vanevery and her assistants were Mrs. Wilfred Smith and Mrs. M. Farmer.

The Institute opening ode was sung and all in unison repeated the "Mary Stewart Collect." The roll call was answered by each member stating a family tradition carried on in the home.

The theme for the meeting was the Tweedsmuir History. Mrs. Peter Vanevery then gave the history of the Sour Springs Women's Institute. It was the first Women's Inst. to be founded on the Six Nations Reserve. After much phoning and consulting with district directors on the initiative of Mrs. William Smith, the first meeting was held at the home of Mrs. George Smith, Smith's Corners, on Nov. 26, 1924.

Mrs. Hudson Jennings, Mrs. J. C. Hall, Miss Rvelfson district directors of the Burford area came to the meeting in a phaeton drawn by a team of horses and driven by Mr. Roy Schuyler, agricultural representative of Brant County. They came to install the officers and to see that the organization started off on the right track. The officers elected were Mrs. William Smith, president, Mrs. William J. Hill, vice-president, Mrs. Peter Vanevery, still active in institute work, was elected Secretary-treasurer.

Plans were made for the forthcoming Homemakers Convention which will be held in Ohsweken Community Hall on July 31, Aug. 1st and 2nd. Mr. Don Cassie, Indian Agent, was present and stated that his office would co-operate with the plans and assist with the reception of delegates who will be attending from other Ontario Reserves. Another meeting was scheduled for July 15th to finalize plans for the convention.

Dr. Sally Weaver was the guest speaker of the evening and gave an illuminating address on the Medical Development on the Six Nations Reserve from 1784 until the present time.

Tremendous progress was made in health service by the Six Nations Council in co-operation with the Department of Indian Affairs. From a tent hospital in 1913 to a 60-bed hospital in 1950. Then came a switch to the Dept. of National Health and Welfare. Public Health nurses were added also School Dental Clinic. Hospital staff was added to the number of 60 but services dwindled to less than 20 beds.

Dr. Weaver's full report will be contained in the Historical Edition of Tekawennake to be issued in August.

Luncheon was served by the hostess and her assistants.

Double Wedding

An interesting and beautiful double wedding was solemnized by Rev. Canon W.J. Zimmerman, rector at Her Majesty's Chapel of the Mohawks on Saturday when Gail Linda Jamieson was united in marriage to Marwood White and Lorna Victoria Jamieson to Ernest White.

The brides are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne (Buck) Jamieson R. 6 Hagersville, Marwood is the son of Mrs. Alice Webster, and Ernest is the son of Mr. Eric White. All are residents of the Six Nations Reserve.

The attendants awaited the brides at the altar of the Mohawk's Historic Chapel. The entrance of the beautiful brides on the arms of their father presented an affecting vision. The wedding party remained at the altar as Miss Beverly Wright, vocalist, sang "O Perfect Love" to organ accompanist, Mrs. Lily Lickers.

Bride Gail Linda was attired in a white peau de soie floor length gown with full skirt and a bustle back. The waist was styled with scoop neckline and short cap sleeve. Her finger tip illusion veil fell from a pearl crown. Long gloves completed the picture.

Bride Lorna Victoria's gown was of white chantilly lace over peau de soie with a chapel train and full length lace sleeves, the finger tip illusion veil was adorned with a crystal crown.

The maids of honour, Dianne Jamieson and Priscilla White were in pale blue floor length lace-trimmed organdy over taffeta gowns.

The bridesmaids Georgina Hill and Lorraine Jamieson were in pale yellow lace over taffeta floor-length gowns. The groomsmen were Boyce White and Allen White. David Jones and John Kemp were the ushers.

At the conclusion of the ceremony Miss Wright sang "The Wedding Prayer". The wedding party repaired to the Ohsweken Community Hall.

The hall was gaily decorated with garlands of white crepe ribbons adorned with flowers and balloons in pastel colours.

Assisting at the reception, the bride's mother wore a silver metallic basic dress with white lace cage. Her corsage was of white baby mums and red bud roses. The groom's mother wore a flowered silk ensemble.

200 guests sat down to the bounteous wedding repast. Mr. William Smith was the genial master of ceremonies. Rev. Canon Zimmerman proposed the toast to the brides which was responded to by the grooms.

Others who extended best wishes on behalf of the guests were Mrs. Emerson Staats, Mr. Wm. White, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Jamieson and Miss Mary Jamieson.

An evening of dancing to the Mohawk Orchestra was enjoyed by the young couples and their many friends.

Mr. & Mrs. Marwood White will reside in Detroit. Mr. & Mrs. Eric White chose to make their home on the Six Nations Reserve. Tekawennake extends congratulations and best wishes to the happy couples.

Speaking of money, it's the husband's job to make it first, and the wife's job to make it last.

Tekawennake was extremely pleased to receive the letter from four Six Nations (bless 'em) from Manitoba and the Fisher Hospital, and the punchy means it was necessary for the Indians to take to retain their hospital.

The Western Indians have contributed the greatest and richest grain-growing lands in the world to the economy of Canada for what must be the cheapest rent in the world - $5 per head per annum. How they'll progress on that!!! Of course the government promised to look after Indian health and education, but the grain is being looked after better.

We met some of the Western Indians at the Indian Centre in Winnipeg in '61. They're a wonderful, smart, up and coming people in spite of everything.

Providence is truly with us or we wouldn't be in existence today. Keep your chins up, Indians, and no one can keep us down!

Warriors' 14th Victory!

Last Saturday July 6th at the Civic Center, the Brantford Warriors won their 14th consecutive victory and practically earned first place in the eastern division of the Ontario Lacrosse Association Senior "B" League.

A newcomer player with the Warrior team for the first time, Scott Burnham, a 20-year old college student from North Tonawanda, N. Y. Burnham was born on the Six Nations Reserve and is spending the summer holidays with his grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Ed. Burnham, on the Reserve. He is 5 feet eleven and weighs 205 pounds. Burnham has had plenty of experience playing field lacrosse in Buffalo, N.Y. This was his first time at Box Lacrosse and his performance so impressed coach Smith that no time was lost signing him up.

Claude Sault led the Warriors' attack with four goals and Jim Squires added with three goals and three assists. Harvey Longboat and Stan Ignatczyk also scored three each.

Charlie Thomas picked up two goals and singles went to Seymour Johnson, Wayne Smith, Brian Cavan and Gil Bomberly.

Warriors play in Owen Sound on Tuesday night of this week and on Friday night, July 12, they will meet the London Packers at the Civic Center.

Squires' Future

Is Jim Squires going to finish the season with Brantford Warriors or will he turn pro? "It's a tough decision to make" said the Warriors' captain. Jim's brother Bill has been with the Detroit Olympics Club since the season began.

Latest News Flash re Jim Squires

Jim Squires is still with Brantford Supertest Warriors. The Warriors' captain and leading scorer turned down an offer to accompany Detroit Olympics on the pro team's trip to Western Canada today.

Squires, who has led the Warriors to first place in the O.L.A. senior "B" league, has played seven games with the Detroit club this season but has not signed a pro contract.

Under a pro-amateur agreement, he is allowed to play up to 12 games in the professional National Lacrosse Association League without losing his amateur status.

However, the Olympics had asked him to sign a contract before they left on their four-game tour of the western division. Detroit is in first place in the eastern division.

The Warriors' Ace is far ahead in the senior "B" scoring race with 99 points on 45 goals and 54 assists. Congratulations and best wishes to J.S. on his decision from Tekawennake.

New Credit News

Induction of new United Church Minister

The New Credit United Church was the setting for the induction of the Rev. Kenneth J. Welch into the Grand River Pastoral Charge of the United Church of Canada. (This charge includes the Grand River, Delaware and New Credit Churches). The service was conducted by the former pastor, the sermon was delivered by the Rev. J. Mel Boyd from the Hamilton Conference Home Mission Board, and the induction was formalized by the Rev. Fred. J. Roberts of First United Church, Galt - the present chairman of Brantford Presbytery. Mr. Ward LaForme read the scripture lesson, and Mr. Albert Montour introduced Mr. Welch to the court and received him on behalf of the congregation. Two choir numbers were sung by the New Credit Choir "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" and "We Have An Anchor", under the direction of Mr. Henry LaForme, Miss Joan LaForme assisting at the organ. The offering was lifted by Mr. Norman King, and Mr. Murray LaForme. Rev. Kenneth J. Welch pronounced the benediction.

After the church service the congregation of approximately one hundred people made their way to the New Credit Rumpus Hall where a reception line was formed with the purpose of introducing Mr. & Mrs. Welch and their two boys to the congregation. Initial introductions completed, everyone went into the Hall and sat down to a veritable banquet provided by the courtesy of the ladies of the three churches. The tables were tastefully decorated and everyone dug in after the Rev. John McCallum, of the Marlboro St. United Church in Brantford, said the grace. The chairman of Presbytery declared that he had been to four induction services in the past week and had seen no spread to equal that provided in the Rumpus Hall. He suggested that for the sake of his stomach he would like to come back next Sunday (July 14) and conduct another induction. (Ah we could have told you Fred that the women up in Galt can't hold a candle to our local girls!) The M.C. then called on Nathan Montour to welcome Mr. Welch & family on behalf of Delaware United Church. Mr. Andrew Jamieson and Mr. Ward LaForme then did the same on behalf of Grand River and New Credit United Churches respectively. Rev. Tom Morikawa, minister of the Ohsweken Baptist Church and Chairman of the Ohsweken Ministerial, brought greetings on behalf of the ministerial and his church and brought regrets from Mr. Odendahl and Mr. Hansen who were unable to attend. Misses Vicki and Valeri King sang a song of the gospel unaccompanied. Mr. and Mrs. Welch aptly and spiritedly responded to the speeches of welcome, and invited one and all to meet them in their home. Master Johnny McNaughton, grandson of Dan and Vi McNaughton and of Lilly Lickers, brought the evening to a close by singing "Our Father" - he was accompanied by Mrs. Lilly Lickers.

Other guests present included Rev. Jack Carbert - St. Andrews United Church, Preston; Rev & Mrs. Neil McLean - Sydenham United Church Brantford; Rev. Lawrence Noddow - Fairview United Church Brantford; Mrs. John McCallum; Mrs. Hoult C.E. Director Wesley United Church Brantford; Mr. & Mrs. Discher, Brantford Ave. United Church Brantford; Mrs. Welch's mother and two of Mrs. Welch's aunts were also present. A certain beautiful girl told the "old" minister he would not be missed because the new minister was "cute". Talk about a stab in the back! Look out Mrs. Welch! The "old" minister went home very proud of everyone present. And the New Credit ladies with their hard-working President Sylvia and daughter Sharan worked until the large hour of twelve to leave everything as they had found it.

Let us set sail to the "crossroads of the Pacific".

Hawaii is a string of more than 20 beautiful tropical islands in the Pacific Ocean. It has beautiful scenery, brilliantly coloured flowers, graceful palm trees and warm blue seas.

All the islands were formed by volcanoes pushing up from the ocean floor. Honolulu, on the island of Oahu, is the capital and largest city. Hawaii "The Big Island" was built by fire volcanoes. Mauna Kea and Mauna Loa are the highest peaks in the Hawaiian group. Mauna Loa erupts every few years. Kilauea is the only other active volcano in the Hawaiian Islands. The sight of bubbling lava in Kilauea's craters draw thousands of tourists. Silvery waterfalls drop from the cliffs along the northern and eastern coasts. Waikiki Beach sweeps across Honolulu's waterfront in a golden crescent of shimmering sand. Diamond Head's dormant crater protects the beach from storms. The "barking sands" on Kauai Island cover a beach that is so dry it makes a "barking sound" when stepped on. The spouting horn on Kauai Island is a natural tube in the rocks along the coast where ocean water spouts upward in a geyser-like fountain. Some of Hawaii's beaches have black sands caused by crumbled lava that has hardened.

Kauai is called "the garden island" because of its rich natural greenery and beautiful gardens.

Lanai is called the "pineapple island" because it consists entirely of one pineapple plantation owned by the Hawaiian Pineapple Company.

Maui is known as the "valley island" because of high mountains at each end of the island that tower over a central valley of sugar cane and pineapple plantations.

Molokai is called the "friendly island" because it is friendly to visitors. Oahu is called the "gathering place."

Women wear colourful printed muumuus with sandals. Men wear brightly coloured aloha shirts with knee-length shorts. Leis are worn on special occasions. They are garlands of flowers strung together.

Sports like swimming, boating, fishing and surfing are enjoyed in the sparkling waters along sandy beaches.

Some Hawaiian foods are poi, laulau and haupia. A luau or feast features roast pork and a variety of other Hawaiian foods.

Hula is the Hawaiian word for dance. Each graceful movement of a dancer's arms and body has a special meaning. The grass skirts worn by hula dancers did not originate in Hawaii but came as a gift from the Chief of Samoa to the Chief of Hawaii.

One of Hawaii's best loved musical instruments is the ukelele which means the "jumping flea." Hawaiian songs have a gay lilting musical sound.

The Aloha tower rises above the piers where departing tourists can take a last longing look at Hawaii.

Sail into the golden sunset and have a golden time Aloha and Mohalo!

Shadow River

- E. Pauline Johnson

A stream of tender gladness,
Of filmy sun and opal tinted skies;
Of warm mid-summer air that lightly lies
In mystic rings,
Where softly swings
The music of a thousand wings
That almost tones to sadness.

The little fern-leaf bending
Upon the brink, its green reflection greets,
And kisses soft the shadow that it meets
With touch so fine,
The border line
The keenest vision can't define;
So perfect is the blending.

O! pathless world of seeming!
O! pathless life of mine whose deep ideal
Is more my own than ever was the real.
For others fame
And love's red flame,
And yellow gold; I only claim
The shadow and the dreaming.
