The tomb of Chief Joseph Brant is located beside the Mohawk Chapel. In March, 1909, it was rumored that in 1879 a group of medical students from Toronto "on a night's revels" had raided the grave and taken Brant's skeleton. Authorities were skeptical of the claim, but there was some evidence that such a raid had taken place. The doubts raised leave the question of "Who's buried in Brant's tomb?" open to speculation.
