OHSWEKEN - July 8, 1973

The B.C. Jets were forced to forfeit their game to the 69 Dusters due to lack of players in the first game scheduled for to-night.

A scrub game was played between the two teams (players were taken from the stands) and the Dusters dusted the Jets 11-5.

George Bomberry was the hero of this game lam-basting a couple over the fence. Because of the forfeit his name cannot be added to the home run list. Paul Bomberry slammed a homer in also but is in the same boat as George.

Gary Garlow and Morris Greene were the only guys not credited in aiding the Dusters in their win..

The second game was a surprising defeat for the Cubs. The Bucks came from behind to win 14-13 in the eighth inning. Cec Davis was brought home on a base hit by Donnie Russell. The Cubs had an early 6-1 lead at the end of the first inning. At the end of the fourth they were leading by 9 runs.

Cec Davis homered for the Bucks and Clarence Jacobs homered for the Cubs. Gary Smith also fenced one for the Bucks.

Carmen Thomas and Maynard Porter shared their pitching abilities for the Bucks and Clarence Jacobs pitched for the Cubs.

OHSWEKEN - JULY 9, 1973

The first game of the evening was played between the Smoothtown Cubs and the Sour Springs Puffballs. This game was a forfeit by the Cubs, with players not showing up for the game. A scrub game was played with a couple of the Puffs playing for the Cubs. The Cubs won the game 9-6.

Seven runs were scored in the second inning by the Cubs. Gib Montour poured on the power at just the right time in this game with the bases loaded. Again because of the forfeit Gib's homer will not be listed.

Cec Sault replaced J. Lickers as pitcher for the Puffs in the fourth inning.

In the second game of the evening the Ohsweken Bucks won 6-3 over the 69 Dusters. The Bucks led throughout the entire game. The Dusters were held scoreless until the sixth inning when Gary Garlow was brought home on a double by Roger MtPleasant.

Carmen Thomas was the Bucks' big boy of the day while John Montour did little to aid the Dusters.

OHSWEKEN - JULY 11, 1973

The evening started out with Ohsweken slaughtering the B.C. Jets 20-5. Donnie Russell was the only guy for the Bucks who wasn't brought home at one time or another. Butch Hill and Bob Johnson led the Bucks with four runs apiece. Tinker Sowden and Maynard Porter followed close behind with three each.

Paul Bomberry, Lonnie Bomberry, Darby and Earl were the guys who saved the day for the Jets, otherwise it might have been mighty smelly around there. But then again there have been other teams skunked by the Bucks.

Darby Thomas pitched for the Jets and Maynard pitched for the Bucks.

In the second game of the evening the S.S. Puffballs edged the
