Black is coal, Red is fire
If only the white man knew Our reservations, slumps and ghetto desires.

While we live in hell
He lives in a nice clean meadow.
We don't need them to run our lives for us
But each and everyone of them makes of fuss.

When we pray, please pray loud
In order to get through the pollution in the clouds.
Tell Him to do something before it's too late Right now everyone is filled with hate
When you tell Him, don't lie Please, please don't make God cry.
