HOROSCOPE - Cont'd.....

home. You may pull up stakes; unwilling family follows but feels insecure. Think it over very carefully.

and find an old inferiority complex has vanished. This is a valuable cycle for career interests, but a hazardous one for love and marriage. If you let yourself feel too powerful and show domineering trends. Home life doesn't interest you much but you should entertain a bit.

SCORPIO - October 23 - November 22

You will be much easier for others to understand now and your personality will not have the tinge of mysterious silence and evasiveness. The cycle will be adventurously exciting and you may find it puts you in a new and central position so far as career is concerned. You may be under test by someone hard to please.

CANADIAN INDIAN ART 74

An Exhibition Of Indian Arts and Crafts

SAGITTARIUS - November 23 - December 21

A much more cheery spirit is in you now and it will win back friendships you were in danger of losing. Be yourself and don't let domestic troubles get you down. It's a fine time to seek remedies for problems, and to help solve problems of others. Be yourself. Your friends like you best that way.

In 1974 the World Craft Council will hold an International Craft Exhibition and Conference in Toronto from mid June through until the end of August. The Royal Ontario Museum, The Canadian Guild of Crafts and the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development are jointly mounting a National Indian Arts and Crafts Exhibition in conjunction with the activities sponsored by the World Craft Council.

CAPRICORN - December 22 - January 20

You will get good news from a letter you send out and may be thinking of moving to quite a distance. You will not be alone on such a journey, but your companion may not be the one you want. You will be pleased with your progress now and show much capability when you take over a complex job. Your living conditions may be more luxurious than ever.

Any artist or craftsman who is of Canadian Indian Ancestry and has been a resident of Canada since January 1, 1970, is eligible. Each entry must be of original or traditional design and executed by the artist/craftsman in Canada. In the event that work is designed and executed by more than one craftsman it must be so labelled.

AQUARIUS - January 21 - February 19

You can create some difficult circumstances for yourself due to daring and leaving the beaten path, but good influences now will save you from such difficulties. You may be winding up a phase of your life and your intuition can tell you that things will never be the same. Hold the Aquarian spirit of activity in reasonable restraint. You will be better for it.

Traditional crafts in all materials are acceptable, as well as paintings in all media, drawings, engravings, lithographs, and so on. Sculptured objects are also eligible. All entries to become the exclusive property of the Central Marketing Service at the point of purchase.

Entries should be sent collect to:
Mr. Tom Hill, Exhibition Co-ordinator,
Central Marketing Service,
145 Spruce Street,
Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0H4

PISCES - February 20 - March 20

You will be aggressive, feel no timidity

Canadian Indian Art 74 will be displayed at The Exhibition Hall in the Royal Ontario Museum, Toronto.
