REACH OUT A HAND

Soon I'll touch the gates to freedom And Mother Nature will be there To guide me to her loving kingdom Away from this unbearable night-marc.

But then society might not understand
And keep me a prisoner in thoughts they have now I wonder, will someone reach out his hand
I fear the day will never dawn.

As days grow longer and nights go sleepless
My fear and wonder call Soon I'll touch the gates to freedom
And find the answer beyond that wall.
