OHSWEKEN BUCKS TAKE THIRD GAME

OHSWEKEN: The third game of the semi-final playoffs between the Bucks and the Puffs proved to be disastrous for the latter. The Bucks really socked it to them in their determination to be in the final round against either the Jets or the Cubs for the Championship in the SNMSL. The final score of the game was Bucks 14 & Puffs 4.

OHSWEKEN: The Smoothtown Cubs blew their chance to take their series in three straight. The Jets managed to look good this game and could prove to be a tough competitor for the Cubs. Frank Montour the Cubs ace home runner belted one over the fence but with the bases unloaded the run only proved Frank could hit a home run. The final score at the end of the game was Jets 3 and Cubs 2.

Playoff games will start either the 12th of Sept, or the 17th of Sept.

GOLF

The Six Nations Golfing Association held their sixth Annual Golf Tournament on Sept. 2, 1973, at Windsor Park in Copetown Ont.

The present heat wave which has hit southern Ontario for the last week or so, did little to mar the competitive spirit of the 39 entries (ranging in ages 13-66) who braved the 103 degree temperatures to make the tournament a success.

William Smith of Kettle Point was the oldest entry at the age of 66 and Murray Porter the youngest is 13.

Fred Johns of Chicago, Ill. was registered as the golfer from the farthest away.

Bing Martin won the low Gross with 76 points. The low net was a three way tie between Rocki Smith, Hook Martin and Ambrose Johnson, with 71 points.
