

SPORTS - Cont'd.....

to cut the lead, but there was not enough time and not enough Spoiler Players interested enough to show up for the game. Two penalties were called in the last period.

.....
The Smoothtown Bruins seem to be habitual winners as they zonked Garnet 7-2 in the second game of the evening.

The Bruins' sharpshooters went at it again when Butch Hill's 4 goals put him in the same class as teammate Bill Squires. Bill Squires contributed 2 goals to the cause while Ted Davis had to settle for one.

Garnet's goals were scored by Bob Green and George Almond.

Sorry for the short write-up but because of weather conditions I got stranded in a warm place.

.....
Hagersville Jan. 20, 1973

Eight teams were scheduled for the tournament held here on Sat. The first game was to played between the Smoothtown Bruins and the N.B.C. Al-Stars but the Al-stars failed to make an appearance. The Bruins won the game by a forfeit.

Sour Springs Spoilers won the second game 5-3 over Cayuga. Scorers for the Spoilers were Paul Henhawk, and Rich Anderson with 2 goals apiece and Terry General had 1. Cayuga scorers were Bob Green 2 and Bill Constable 1.

In the third game Belair socked to Lambs Corners 7-3.

The fourth game was also a forfeit with the win going to Buffalo.

The Semi-finals were played by the Spoilers against the Bruins and Buffalo against Belair.

The Bruins won their game 4-3 and Buffalo defeated Belair 5-4.

Scorers for the Bruins were Larry Hill, Cliff Chrysler, Bill Green and Roger Mt. Pleasant. The Spoilers goals came from Paul Henhawk, Rick Anderson and Brian Martin. According to comments from the fans this was the best game of the tourney.

The Final game was played between Buffalo and Smoothtown for the championship. Buffalo handed the Bruins a 7-2 loss. Buffalo took home the trophy again as they've done in the last two years. Both goals of the first period went to Buffalo and both penalties of the period went to Buffalo.

Buffalo scored 3 goals in the second period while Smoothtown managed to get on the board. Allen White was tossed out of the game for fighting (someone should talk to that guy) the penalty was served by Snip Hill.

Frank Montour scored the second goal the Bruins managed to get (unassisted) but to no avail as the Buffalo players scored 2 more goals before the period ended.

The most valuable players award went to Buffalo.

.....
MINOR HOCKEY

Six Nations Minor hockey teams won two games Friday night. Onea against Plattesvill 6-0 and the peewees whopped St. George 10-2.

Novice Scorers included Todd Van-Every with 2 and Stewart Hill, Bobby General, Eldon Hill and Greg Henhawk added singles. Goalie Gene Johns earned the shutout, against Plattesville.

Peewee Jeff Reid scored twice while Dale Henhawk, Rod Hess, Terry Smith, Larry Martin, Greg Lickers, Gene Martin, Mike Henhawk and Murray Porter added to the win with one apiece.

.....
Six Nations won the peewee Championship in the Aye hockey tournament over the weekend of the 20th. in Jan.

The championship game was played