

TEKAWENNAKE

30¢

30¢

SIX NATIONS-NEW CREDIT REPORTER

Published at Ohsweken, Ontario, Canada. Editor and Publisher -
Mrs. Carolyn Beaver. Second Class Mail Registration No. 0930.
Wednesday, November 21, 1973

THOUGHTS OF YOU

All day my soul was filled with thoughts of you.
Now, shadows creep across the chilled night air,
My dream-filled day has ended
And another night without you has begun,
My eyes grow heavy with a longing for sleep.
I would slumber, but dreams remind me
That you are not here with me,
Instead I lie awake, wondering
When my hand again can touch the smoothness
Of your sun-tanned face;
When my fingers can brush your coal-black hair.
As the sun kisses the gray dawn of the morning,
So do my lips hold a kiss for you.
A kiss that waits, but knows that the new-born
Day will only bring me thoughts of you again.

-Sharon VanEvery-

SECOND CLASS MAIL
REGISTRATION NO. 0930

Six Nations Public
Library
Ohsweken P.O.
Ohsweken, Ontario

