HOROSCOPE - What kind of leader are you?

ARIES - March 21 - April 20

You are the one in the Zodiac who takes to being a leader as a duck takes to water. You like to start enterprises and projects; but you are not particularly interested in seeing them out to the finish. Your leadership is at its best when it is getting into something new. Old projects once begun do not interest you much, and your attention to the people involved lags.

HOROSCOPE - What kind of Leader are you?

TAURUS - April 21 - May 20

Attention to detail is important. Handling wealth and possession comes naturally. You do not care to go off to something new when there is something left undone. Your greatest usefulness is in perfecting the details of a project. Look for ways to decrease costs, handle materials, perfect details. You will soon outslip your fellow man and assume strong leadership in your chosen area.

GEMINI - May 21 - June 21

You are a leader where brains are needed - you do your best in mental fields. You can think of any number of ways to implement an idea and to communicate it to others. You are a person who can grab many loose ends and weave them together into a solid unit. Your versatility leads to positions of authority.

CANCER - June 22 - July 22

Regardless of the field of endeavor, your environment becomes like a home to you. You can convey strong emotional power and sympathy to others. When you exercise the magnetic emotional appeal you have inside, you can move others to act or react as you please. Satisfying the emotional need of others (and yourself), you become a leader of great value.

LEO - July 23 - August 23

You naturally desire to be a leader, to be the center of the stage. You do this best when you have for your purpose the pleasure of others and a concern for
