

Six Nations Personals (continued)

Last Saturday evening a delightful birthday supper was given in honour of Mr. Gordon Farmer Sr. R.1 Wilsonville, at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Peter Neudert, Bealton. Among the guests were Mr. & Mrs. Roy Pursley, Mr. & Mrs. Bruce Whitlow, Mr. & Mrs. Clarence Forrest, Mrs. Dorothy Jamieson, Mrs. Minnie Farmer, Mrs. Jim Hill, Mr. Truman Hill & son, Mr. & Mrs. Myerscough, and Mr. Wilfred Davis; also present were Mr. Farmer's grandchildren. Mr. Farmer was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Kenneth Anderson 13, son of Mrs. Wilma Anderson, St. Johns Cors. after a serious illness in the Brantford General Hospital, has been transferred to the Hamilton Sanitarium. The medics predict a long period of convalescence for Kenneth. We hope Kenneth will return to his family in good health before very long.

Mr. Ross Powless, R. 6 Hagersville, injured while working on the new hydro plant at Nanticoke returned home last Friday after several days in the Brantford General Hospital. Ross in a fall suffered a slipped disc and is still feeling the effects.

Mr. Charlie Gibson has returned to his home in Brantford after some time spent in the Brantford General Hospital.

Mrs. Olivine Jacobs has returned to Detroit after visiting her mother, Mrs. Leah Powless.

Mr. & Mrs. Albert Garlow, Chicago, Ill. enjoyed a visit with relatives in the Hagersville area during the vacation season.

Dr. Daniel J. Smith, after an extended stay at home on the Reserve, returned to New Zealand last Thursday. After travelling in many countries the world over, Dr. Smith stated that the reserves have the greatest potential for development than anywhere in the world. We agree and hope he'll be back to prove it.

Miss Muriel Lickers is currently employed in Buffalo pending settlement of the strike at Chicago Rawhide Products Canada Ltd. in Brantford.

James P. Hill, R. 6 Hagersville, is improving slowly in the Brantford General Hospital. Jimmy is an iron and steel worker and suffered a serious injury. Keep on improving, Jimmy!

Mrs. Agnes Lickers is home now - recovering from an operation on her back. She spent five weeks in Chedoke Hospital, Hamilton.

Drama Club presentation of plays will be Feb. 21 and 22. Tickets may be obtained from club members. Adults $1.00 and students 75 cents.

Mr. & Mrs. Maynard Miller visited Corp. & Mrs. Douglas Marshall, Brampton, last Wednesday.

SIX NATIONS SPORTSSix Nations Bowling League
Scores for January 8, 1969

by M. Moses, Sec.

High single, ladies - Betty Porter	279	High single, men - Norman Jacobs	322
High triple, ladies - Bev. Beaver	733	High triple, men - Herman Styres	752
Team # 1 -	39 points
Teams 4 & 5 -	37 points
Team # 10 -	34 points

Elmvale, Six Nations Teams Win

Six Nations and Elmvale teams were the big winners in the seventh annual Ayr minor hockey tournament during the weekend.

Six Nations teams won the peewee championship and the novice consolation honors. The Elmvale clubs took the novice championship and the peewee consolation.

In the novice division, Elmvale shut out Norwich 2-0 and Six Nations edged Ayr 2-1. The Six Nations squad then met Plattsville and won 8-2 to win the novice consolation trophy. Elmvale and Elora battled to a 4-4 tie which was eventually broken in overtime giving the Elmvale team a 5-4 victory and the novice title.

Six Nations players handed Ayr a 6-3 defeat and Elmvale edged Norwich 4-2 in peewee division action. Elmvale beat Elora 1-0 for the consolation final. Six Nations captured the championship with an overtime goal which broke a 4-4 tie with Plattsville.

continued