The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.      Philippians 4:23

Many, many times I have turned to this benediction and found it to be a source of comfort and strength. It is a characteristic prayer with which the apostle Paul closes his Epistles.

Whenever I experience some stress or strain, disappointment or frustration, sickness or affliction; whatever it may be that causes my spirit to sink, I turn to these words and repeat them over and over to myself. I try to personalize them the more by saying: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ is with my spirit."

When used in this way I find these words amazingly strengthening. They bring Christ close with all His sustaining and enabling grace. They bring the light and guidance of the Holy Spirit to lift my spirit again.

Prayer: Our heavenly Father, we look to Thee with grateful hearts for all Thy mercies in Christ our Lord- for His wondrous light, salvation, and strength. Help us to trust completely in Thee, and believe that in Christ we can do the Father's will and overcome the world. In His blessed name. Amen.

Thought for the Day

When we have confidence in Christ's presence in times of need, we receive His help.
