Six Nations vs Oneida Bowling

A bowling tournament was held last Saturday afternoon at Mohawk Lanes in Brantford with Six Nations and Oneida bowling teams participating. Six Nations bowlers carried off the lion's share of the prizes. Individual winners were:

Ladies high triple	- Bev. Beaver	748	Six Nations
Ladies high single	- Pat Cornelius	286	Oneida
Men's high triple	- Wayne King	718	Six Nations
Men's high single	- Norman Jacobs	295	Six Nations
Ladies low score	- Sandra Henhawk	111	Six Nations
Men's low score	- Gary Nicholas	108	Oneida

Six Nations won all team prizes:

No. 1 Team Six Nations ladies won Ladies team prize
 No. 2 Team Six Nations men won Men's team prize
 No. 2 Team Six Nations mixed won Mixed team prize

Competition was keen in the tournament but plenty of fun and laughter went along with it.

Following the tournament, the competitors all returned to the Ohsweken Community Hall dining room where the Six Nations were hosts to a delectable buffet supper. Mrs. Doris Henhawk, Social Convenor for the Six Nations Bowling Association, presided and prizes were distributed to the lucky winners. Congratulations to Six Nations Bowlers on their success and for your hospitality to the competitors. They must have gone home happy.

SIX NATIONS PERSONALS

Dr. Arthur Irvin, Ottawa, is coming to the Six Nations Reserve and on March 21st. at 8 p.m. he will speak on "Human Rights" at the Christian Aid Hall. He will also show slides on Indians across Canada.

Ben and Fred Leebred, Rochester, N.Y. visited Mr. & Mrs. Stanley Green, Martin's Corner and Mr. & Mrs. Albert Garlow, R.R. 6, Hagersville, last weekend.

Mr. Ross Powless has returned to the Brantford General Hospital for treatment for a former injury. All wish for Ross a speedy recovery.

Mr. Victor Porter was required to spend several days last week in the Brantford General Hospital due to an injury received in the Strathroy Hockey Tournament.

Mr. & Mrs. Dufferin Davis, Ohsweken, were hosts at a birthday dinner last Thursday evening in honour of Duff's dad. It was a double celebration - Mr. Davis' birthday and his release on the previous day from St. Joseph's Hospital after successful surgery.

Word has been received that Dr. Gilbert C. Monture, in Ottawa Civic Hospital, is progressing favourably. We are all pleased to hear this good news.

Miss Ruby Montour, R.N. recently returned home from Moose Factory General Hospital, is now on duty in the Intensive Care Unit of the Brantford General Hospital.
