

Cornplanter Con'td.

Cornplanter's fame, then spread through the land.
The greatest of leaders, in the Seneca band.

At last the war ended, and Treaties were made,
And Cornplanter said, some debts must be paid.

To high ranking people, spoke Seneca Chief.
He asked for so little, they sighed with relief.

His earnest desire, was that justice be done,
That the Great White Father, would speak with straight tongue.

Then time took its' toll, Cornplanter grew old,
And rarely in books, his story is told.

Now though he is dead, we know just the same,
Now and forever, - we'll remember his name.

The Titanic Disaster

Fifty years ago, April 14, 1912, the H.M.S. Titanic sank. Reports at that time said that she struck an iceberg but one survivor told world news man, Chicken Charlie, that the passengers sank it. The survivor said that the ship just left London when one of the passengers broke out with Antish. (Antish is a rare disease which causes its victims to put on as much as 2,000 lbs.) The Captain, not realizing the seriousness of Antish, let the person infected with Antish have free access to every part of the ship. Five days later everyone on board had Antish. Then the Titanic, big as she was, sank. Other reports said that the Titanic hit an iceberg and the iceberg hit the Titanic back.

Marg Griggs Murder Trial Is On.

Marg Griggs, the girl who murdered sixteen boy friends, went on trial today. Capt. Henry Kool said Marg used an axe to cut off their heads. If Marg is found guilty she'll hang. If Marg is found innocent she'll serve five years in Mitch Miller prison.

Antish Takes The Life Of Adam West

Adam West known to millions as Batman died today in Hollywood. James Darrin said he noticed Adam was getting fatter two weeks ago. A week later Mr. Darrin reported that Adam weighed 500 lbs. This news was confirmed by Gregory Peck during a telephone conversation I had with him. At his death Mr. West was nineteen hundred pounds. Due to its size the body is resting at mid-field in the Rose Bowl Stadium; interment will be in the Arizona Grand Canyon.
