

Brantford

The Six Nations is one of Canada's largest Indian reserves, and it was there that the Queen and Prince Philip travelled by car after landing in mid-afternoon at Brantford

Airport. Chief Wellington Staats was the first to greet them, acting as host and guide throughout the thirty-minute visit. The 10,000 spectators found the Queen relaxed and