

Six Nations fish fry

Six Nations elders enjoyed a fish fry on Wednesday at Chiefswood Park. It's an annual event based on the tradition of sharing surplus fish with elders. About 400 people were served dinners of perch and pickerel, salads, rolls and desserts. Major donors included Six Nations Builders, Wolf's Landing, Peter Hill, Jr., and Six Nations Legends hockey team.

ABOVE: Jerry Jonathan places another load of fish in the fryer.

RIGHT: Elzima Maracle enjoys her meal.

