FOR YOUTH EMPOWERMENT SUMMIT

A Tribe Called Red is a DJ/producer power group consisting of DJ NDN, Bear Witness and Zoolman. Within a couple of years they've become the face of an urban Native youth renaissance, championing their heritage and speaking out on aboriginal issues, while being on top of popular music, fashion and art. They will be on the Six Nations of the Grand River Territory Friday August 14th at Thru The Red Door Studios for the Youth Empowerment Summit to give a keynote presentation for the new generation of music producers. See page 14 for story.
