

Six Nations lacrosse star Johnny Powless carried the Pan-Am torch in Hamilton as part of the pre-games promotions for the biggest North American sporting event there is, which begins July 10 in Toronto and area. The Pan-Am's are a prelude to the Olympics and several sports use these Games as a qualifier for the Olympic Team Canada. The Games are being hosted by the Mississaugas of the New Credit, the traditional holders of the land which eventually became Toronto. PHOTO BY MELISA JONATHAN
