

Mischief contrary to the Criminal Code are 58-year-old William Monture – Six Nations of the Grand River First Nation, 52-year-old Glenn Green of Mississaugas of the New Credit First Nation, and 35-year-old Cody Fero of Hamilton.

“It’s not about us at all,” says Monture. “It’s about the murdered and missing Indigenous women. This is only a distraction so they don’t have to deal with what the issue is.”

Monture considers the charges a slap on the wrist, but adds, “If they would do their job, I wouldn’t need to do what I’ve gotta do. We did what we had to do. We put out 1,400 fliers explaining the situation and why we were there. We can’t quit on this issue. It’s too important. Let’s keep it moving.”

Monture, Green and Fero will be in court on Dec. 2, at 10 am, at courtroom #1 in Cayuga.
