oping talent including offensive dynamo Layne Smith who finished second in team scoring with 33 goals and 79 points which earned him the Blair Martin Memorial Trophy for Rookie of the Year. "It's very exciting. I had no idea," Smith said about winning Rookie of the Year honors. "It's a great organization and it (winning his first Founders Cup) was an unbelievable experience. Everyone will be gunning for us this season but we're going to work harder."

There is no question that Smith made a strong impression on the Rebels management team. "Layne came in and really
