

It was a classic case of being in the wrong place at the wrong time Tuesday when this Canadian Army transport vehicle pulled up near the Empire Homes site where Six Nations has been keeping workers from continuing construction on a huge housing development on Conklin Road in Brantford. The Army truck's arrival sent ripples throughout Six Nations Territory until the OPP investigated and discovered that it was only a coincidence that it was there at all. A truck driver, who lives close by, was transporting the vehicle to an army base north of Brantford and stopped at home for lunch on the way. Everyone breathed a lot easier when that was explained. (Photo by Al Sault)