

Moses: Olive Ann nee: Hill

Olive Ann (Hill) Moses passed peacefully away in her home at Brierwood Gardens, Brantford on Thursday February 14th, 2013 at the age of 94 with her loving family by her side. Wife of the late Jesse L. Moses. Loving mother of Ronald N. Moses of Toronto. She is survived by her sisters Marjorie Allard and family of Scarborough, ON and Eve Shifler and family of Kalamazoo, Michigan. Olive Ann is also survived by sister-in-law Elsie Hill of Ohsweken and sister-in-law Norma and her husband Max Russell of Orillia, ON. Also left to mourn is a special niece Helen Hill as well as many cousins, nieces and nephews. Predeceased by parents William and Daisy Hill, brothers William and Clarence (Doc) Hill, sisters Eleanor Cady and her husband Glenn, Gladys Leavitt and her husband Merv, and Ethyl Hill. Olive Ann was a teacher for many years on Six Nations and is fondly remembered by the many students she taught, especially the students at # 5 school. She was an active member of St Luke's church for many years and from what I hear a God mother to most of the people in the parish of St. Luke's. In later years she was active in the churches of St. Luke's, St Paul's and St Peter's on Six Nations. Visitation will be held at the Styres Funeral Home, 1798 Fourth Line, Ohsweken after 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Saturday. Evening Prayers 7 p.m. Saturday. Funeral Service will be held from St. Lukes Anglican Church, Six Nations on Sunday February 17, 2013 at 1p.m.. Cremation to follow. www.rhbanderson.com
