Our hearts are full of sympathy to those who have been bereaved. We trust that God in His mercy may uphold and sustain them in their loss.

Our people have felt the burden of the financial depression which is world-wide but we look forward to brighter days and we hope and trust that before the end of the present year conditions will have become much improved.

But in the meantime we hope and pray that God in His goodness may companion with us all and that He may help us to go forward with Christian fortitude to the accomplishment of our several tasks.
