

Be Ready For the Boom in Porcupine

With the improved labour market, the resuming of power supply at normal and the steady world demand for gold, the Porcupine, Canada's greatest gold camp, is bound to boom, if only the Ontario Government will play fair with the mining industry.

There are indications that the Government is coming to see its proposed unjust discrimination in its proper light. If the Government takes the proper attitude, everything then is set for a boom in the Porcupine.
