Do You Read?

Of course you do, and you read more than your forefathers did. Once scholars did most of the reading--now all of us read.

Reading puts a strain on the eyes. Nature never intended it to sustain. We must help nature--assist the eye--adjust it to new conditions. Very few savages need glasses. Almost every civilized person needs them. If you neglect your eye welfare now, the time will come when your eyes will neglect your welfare.

We can furnish you with glasses--before it is too late.

Our eye examination is complete in every way.

TIMMINS NEWS IN BRIEF

See posters for particulars of the big annual stock reduction sale at Ostrosser & Co.'s.

Mr. G. R. Anderson, of Albany, N. Y., was a visitor to the Camp last week.

Jack White, at one time a very popular teller at the Imperial Bank branch here, but more recently located at North Bay, has been transferred to the St. Catharines branch of the Imperial.

Mr. S. Howard Lyons, of Toronto, who is conducting the auction sale at Stock Bros., is no stranger here, having conducted a fine sale here some years ago. He has many friends here who are glad to see him again, as Mr. Lyons keeps his audience amused with his original sayings during the sale.

Porcupine Chapter No. 84, Eastern Star, are giving an "At Home" in the Oddfellows' Hall, South Porcupine, on the evening of Armistice Day, Nov. 11th and a large attendance may be expected of invited guests from all over the Camp, with all spending a very pleasant evening.

In remitting subscription for the coming year Mrs. Hugh McGee, now at St. Jean, Manitoba, writes, "Keep The Advance coming as we do not wish to miss a copy. It seems like hearing from home when we get our paper. Glad to know that Timmins is flourishing, and we hope to see it again."

Mr. John J. Mahon, of Sudbury, a pioneer of the Nickel Belt, has been a visitor to the Gold Camp, visiting his son, Mr. Frank Mahon, of Timmins. Mr. Mahon is an old-time mining man, having served twenty-eight straight years with the International Nickel Co. On his way home he will stop off at Iroquois Falls and Kirkland Lake.

Mr. D. Bertrand, of South Porcupine, has again announced himself as an Independent Liberal Farmer candidate for the present election campaign in Temiskaming. He suggests that he will address the electors at the meetings of other candidates. Mr. Bertrand announced himself last Dominion election as a candidate, but retired from the field before nomination day. He says he is in the field this year to stay until the bitter end.

The auction sale at Stock Bros. is attracting big crowds and generally proving satisfactory and successful. It is the intention to dispose of all the present jewellery stock by auction sale.
