BORN—At the Cairns Hospital, Timmins, on Nov. 2nd, 1921, to Mr. and Mrs. F. Murtagh,—a daughter.

Mr. Don Campbell, who has been in North Bay recently, returned to town Monday evening, and is again on the local staff of the Express office.

Is your name on the Voters' List for the Dominion Election? See the registrar's list at the Council Chamber, and if your name has been omitted apply to the Revising Officer, Mr. E. H. Hill, to have it duly added.

Directors of Bourkes Mines recently passed a by-law to increase the capital stock from two and a half to five million dollars. A meeting of shareholders is called for Saturday of this week to approve this plan. The present idea is to sell 1,700,000 of the new shares to present shareholders in proportion to the shares now held.

After the regular lodge meeting last night the I.O.O.F. had a very enjoyable Smoker and Social Evening. In addition to cards and other social pleasures a delightful programme was rendered, including a song by Mr. Jas. Cowan and a reading by Mr. Lainsbury. Mr. Geo. S. Drew won the prize for eucure, Mr. Pritchard making the address of presentation and Mr. Drew making suitable reply.

The last issue of The Pas (Manitoba) Herald says:—"Gordon Murray returned to The Pas on Tuesday after negotiating the sale of his Elbow Lake gold properties to a syndicate which Sam Cohen represents. The appeal of Charles Sandrelli of North Bay against Magistrate Atkinson's sentence of six months for breach of the O.T.A. was heard by Judge Leask at North Bay and decision reserved for a week. On account of certain spectacular features, such as the fact that the liquor seized was worth $11,000, and that the raid on Sandrelli's house was made by outside officers, the case created widespread interest.
