

Timmins News in Brief

Mr. Wm. Carton, of Buffalo, N. Y., was a visitor to the Camp this week.

BORN—In Moneta, on Monday, Nov. 28th, to Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Galvin, —a daughter.

An open air rink is being made on a corner of the public school grounds for the use of the pupils of the school.

Don't forget the annual meeting of the Porcupine C.A.S. in the Council Chambers, Timmins, this (Wednesday) evening. Election of officers for the ensuing year, receiving of reports, etc.

It is understood that Capt. Tom Magledery will return from Edmonton shortly to be present at the next session of the Ontario Legislature as the representative for Temiskaming riding.

In the last issue of The Advance through an error it was made to appear that Miss Pitre was the president of the St. Anthony's Altar Girls' Society. Miss Mary Donovan is the president of the Altar Girls' Society.

The next meeting of the Caledonian Society of Timmins will be held in the I.O.O.F. Hall on Friday evening of next week, Dec. 9th. Among the special items on the programme for the evening will be papers by Mr. Downie on "John Bull," and by Mr. P. Dougall on "What Is Success in Life?" In addition to these interesting and helpful addresses there will be a number of other items including musical and literary selections.

Despatches from North Bay last week say that the case against Chas. Sandrelli arrested on the train near Ottawa on a charge of complicity in the theft of furs from the Adams store at the Bay has been "cancelled," whatever that may mean. In any event Sandrelli appears to be free of any charge in this connection and expresses his intention of suing for false arrest, a town officer and a Provincial policeman of North Bay likely to be the defendants. Sandrelli was out on bail pending the Judge's decision in his appeal in connection with Magistrate Atkinson's conviction of Sandrelli for breaches of the O.T.A. growing out of the Provincial raid at North Bay recently in which $11,000 worth of liquor was seized at the Bay.

Mike predicts that this is going to be a very dry Christmas. It is a hard word.

The directors of the Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines paid a visit to the Camp and the property this week.

Mr. M. Sally returned last week from his hunting trip, bringing with him a fine six-year-old buck as a trophy of his skill at the hunting game.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Union Church, Schumacher, are holding a Tea from 3 to 6 p.m. on Saturday of this week, Dec. 3rd.

A winter sports club has been organized and a big slide built back of Dome pump house. The young people are looking for lots of pleasure this winter on this big slide.

There was such a heavy fog on Monday morning that a local gentleman born in Lannon, Eng., is reported as saying, "My hi, but hit bleeding well makes me 'omesick.'"

Kitchener Rebekah Lodge, South Porcupine, are holding a Supper and Concert on Wednesday evening, Dec. 7th, at 9 o'clock, after their meeting for the Rebekahs and for Oddfellows and their wives. The event will be held in the I.O.O.F. Hall.

Mr. Geo. Vary left yesterday (Tuesday) for the south. Mr. Vary has been slightly indisposed recently and is going to the south for treatment by specialists. All his many friends in the camp will wish Mr. Vary a very speedy return to complete health and an early return to the camp.

Mr. Roberts, representing Minnesota capitalists, who has been signing up options on farms along the river for exploratory work in the search for minerals, has met with almost invariable success among the settlers approached. Practically all have given him options on their farms. Diamond drilling will be carried on upon the properties optioned, and if a "find" is made the mineral rights will be purchased at the price set up on the farm, the settler to retain the land, and the land specially used for mining to be purchased at a figure ranging from $25 to $100 per acre, according to whether it is cleared or uncleared.
