The Advance is not a bit surprised at the election result in Temiskaming. When the Scottish vote was split three ways, as it might be with a Donald and two Angus lads running, anything could happen. P.S.—This was written before the returns were received, but it doesn't make any difference.

Rink manager J. D. MacLean intends this season to strictly enforce the rule against smoking in the rink. The public generally should co-operate both for the sake of the hockey players and for the sake of guarding against fire risks. Placards from the Ontario Fire Marshal warning against the danger of smoking in rinks and similar places make it an offence to indulge in the practice.

Iroquois Falls Rink Committee is taking very strong attitude in regard to complimentary tickets this year, on account of the abuse of the pass privileges last season. There will be absolutely not a single complimentary ticket issued to players or officials or anyone else this season. Players and officials at any one game will of course be admitted to that game without charge, but they will not have a ticket entitling them to admission to the rink at any other time.
