Timmins News in Brief

Mr. Jess Spring left last week for Toronto where he will reside.

10k. Baby Rings, $1.00, at Grill's Jewelry Store.

Mr. Lyell Alexander, of Toronto, is back in the Camp.

Mr. Jas. Grieve left last week for an extended visit to his old home in Scotland.

Mr. John Kilgore left this morning for the east, called there by a wire received yesterday giving the sad news of the death of his brother near Ottawa.

Dr. Weed, the noted geologist of New York, arrived here last week and is at present in Deloro Township where he is making an examination of the Paymaster property.

Mr. J. J. McGarry, Travelling Freight and Passenger Agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, with headquarters of North Bay, Ont., was a visitor to the Camp this week in the interests of the C.P.R. The C.P.R. is after North Land trade and by its superior service and attention to business is getting its share.

The Timmins Rink has issued a list "Ten Commandments" to be religiously observed by all patrons of the skating place this season, and Manager J. D. MacLean says that any person who breaks any of these ten commandments will not have to wait until the next world to be properly damned.

The Evening Classes at the Public School continue in popularity with the attendance showing increase from week to week. Also, it is likely that some new classes will be started. When ten or more signify their desire for a class in a certain subject, then that class is practically sure to be started at an early date.

Messrs. Simms & Hooker, insurance and real estate agents, moved this week into the quarters recently occupied by the local Public Health Nurse and Clinic, in the Dr. McInnis block, Pine street, a few doors from their former business stand. The new offices of Simms & Hooker are much more commodious and better equipped than the other premises.

Mr. Wm. Ashton, of Toronto, was a visitor to the Camp last week.

Mr. Chas. Sheridan, of Vineland, Ont., was a visitor to Camp this week.

Bracelet Watches, 15 jewels, in Fortune cases, extra special, $15.00, at Grill's Jewelry Store.

Footnote—Mr. F. C. H. Simms is able to be out again after being laid up for several days with a sore foot.

Band Concert in the New Empire Theatre after the church services on Sunday evening, Dec. 18th. Excellent programme. No citizen should miss this event by the Timmins Citizen's Band.

Help yourself and help the business places of the town. In other words, shop early. Early shopping means an easier time for the business places during this very busy season. Early shopping means for you more time to make a choice of gifts and bigger stocks to select from.

Last week Jackie Dalton lost his collie dog. He felt badly no doubt, but he didn't take time to weep. Instead, he put an advt. in The Advance last Wednesday. Result:—Thursday, Jackie thus proved again that advertising pays. This bright lad could give pointers to many older folks on just how to do things.

CALEDONIANS TO HOLD CHRISTMAS TREE ON 23rd.

The regular meeting of the Caledonian Society next week is to take the form of a Christmas Tree and Concert for the little lads and lassies. There will be a regular Christmas Tree with presents for each and all of the children, and Santa Claus will be there in person to distribute the gifts. There will also be a programme of selections by the children and for the children. And of course there will be all sorts of good things to eat and a regular jolly good time. All this on the regular meeting night of the Caledonian Society of Timmins on Friday evening, Dec. 23rd.
