

REDMAC

Redmac has become a household name,—you cannot go out to spend the evening without hearing the name Redmac. People of society and those of humble life are to-day placed on the same plane, they are both human, both subject to the ills of life, Redmac heals them alike, and at the same price. No man or woman is too poor or too wealthy for Redmac. Sold by BURKE'S DRUG STORE.

In commenting on the North Bay Nugget's story of the alleged hen in that alleged town laying three alleged eggs in one alleged day, The Sudbury News says that the hen must be a good layer or the owner a good liar. Apparently The News does not know The Nugget or The News would recognize the other possibility, and in this case possibility is spelled p-r-o-b-a-b-i-l-i-t-y.

INTERMEDIATE HOCKEY OFF TO A GOOD START

The Three Intermediate Teams Now Have a Win and a Loss Each.

When it was announced last week that on account of the expense the Timmins Hockey Committee found it necessary to drop Intermediate Hockey for the season, there was considerable regret. This necessary procedure would prove a serious blow for Cochrane and the Falls, especially Cochrane which has no other senior hockey. The other two teams felt badly over the situation, so W. G. Smith and other old-time sports got busy to see what could be done to give Cochrane and the Falls Intermediates a run for their money and some good sport. Mr. Smith and others believed the Intermediate would be self-supporting, but they soon found that if not many here were ready to help out in generous fashion. The players all ready to give time, effort, and buy their own equipment, etc. Accordingly a team was lined up and the first games of the Intermediate series was duly played here on Saturday with Cochrane. It was a rousing game and the crowd of 300 or 400 present enjoyed it from beginning to end. There was some fine hockey during the evening and some swift, clever work. Not one in the crowd but thinks he got more than his money's worth. Every player worked like a hero and the teams being well-matched, the game was most interesting. Timmins won by a 3 to 2 score, the deciding goal being made by the two home defence men who went down the ice in fine team work in the last minute of play. Cochrane has a promising team. Indeed Cochrane won last week from the Falls Intermediates. Mr. G. S. Lowe refereed the game Saturday night and gave perfect satisfaction. The lineup was as follows:—

Timmins—Stefno, goal; Keely and Lake, defence; Lavereau, Jacobs and Jones; Lilly and Horne, subs.

Cochrane—Campbell, goal; Drinkwater and Rinn, defence; Anderson, Hewson and McNece, forwards; Coster and Jamieson, subs.

For Timmins, Keeley starred, with the steady and untiring work of Joe Jacobs worthy of special mention, but all the boys put up such a lively game that each and all deserve credit. The game was noteworthy for the clean playing throughout and the way all the players worked every minute.

Last night at the Falls, Timmins was not so fortunate with the Papé Town Intermediates, losing out 9 to 3 after a lively game in which the best team won on the play of the evening. Stefno had poor luck in goal, while the Falls had a goal tender that made a number of wonderful saves. The game was a lively one and much better than the score indicates. The Timmins team was the same as Saturday, with the exception that Don Cameron played forward in place of Lavereau and the subs were Lilly and G. S. Lowe. Messrs. Brydger and Brickenden handled the game all O.K. Don Cameron is a decided acquisition and promises to be a great strength to the team. In the game here next Tuesday Timmins expects and intends to reverse the Falls victory. As it is, the Intermediates, Timmins, Cochrane and the Falls, each have a win and a loss.

JUNIORS DEFEATED AT IROQUOIS FALLS SATURDAY

The Juniors met defeat at the Falls Saturday evening. With the addition of the note that there was a little rough stuff and the local boys were not altogether pleased with the referee, the following from The Broken Hustler this week tells the story. The Juniors expect to turn the tables when the Falls comes here though it is freely admitted by the Timmins boys that the Falls has a fine team. The Broken Hustler says:—

The Iroquois Falls Juniors followed the lead of the Senior Team, and won the first match in the League series Saturday night by defeating Timmins Juniors 4 to 2.

There were three hundred people in the rink to see the game and they cheered the youngsters lustily. They were tickled to death to see the victory, but the remark most heard was "Glad that they won, but they will have to play better hockey than that to go through to Toronto."

The game showed two things about our team—that it has the material for a crackerjack team. Second that the material has to be worked up before it is a crackerjack team; it is not so at present.

On Saturday night the defence played a good steady game—all three men. McVicar especially did great work not only in stopping the rushes of the opposing forwards, but in getting the puck down the ice.

Geo. Morrison, though comparatively new to hockey, played a steadily effective game. McCann in goal was good. He stopped everything that could have been stopped.

Forward Line

The weakness of the team on Saturday night was on the forward line. Allarie, Gauthier and Lafrance have all got speed, are all good stick-handlers, but that was all that could be said for their play on Saturday night. They did not play their positions. Any man of them might be any place on the ice at any time. There were no wing men. There was generally somebody in centre ice but except on a faceoff there was nobody on the wings. Until we can put a team on the ice with forwards playing their positions and letting the other fellow play his, it will never be a cup team.

Even worse than that was the way in which they bunched together and even checked each other. A dozen times during the night one or other of the forwards took the puck away from one of our own men. A dozen times during the night two of our men bodychecked each other. This bunching of the forward line was the worst feature of the play.

No Combination

Another bad feature was their lack of combination play. It is easy to understand that a forward, especially on a junior team, wants to get the credit for goals. He will get the credit, if he takes the puck down and passes it in to a man in a position to score, but our forwards could not see it that way on Saturday night. Each one wanted to score his own goals. If they had played a combination game they could have scored at will.

This criticism of the play is the criticism that was voiced by pretty nearly everybody in the rink, and the reason they said it openly and frankly is that they like the team and like the boys in the team, and would like to see them play real hockey because they all know that they can do it. There is no question that the kind of game they played Saturday will not do against Sudbury or the Soo. There is no question either that if the boys will play their positions and pass the puck in front of the net, that the team can put up a splendid argument with the Southern Group winners, with a good chance of going to Toronto.

Brewer a Barndoor

Brewer, in Timmins goal, was the sensation of the night. Shots rained in on him from the wings and from the centre position, and he stopped them by the score. A lot of the shots, of course, were straight at him and it was not much trouble to turn them aside, but a lot of them also were difficult to stop, and the fact that the score was only four against him, is the biggest kind of credit to him in the nets.

The Timmins team is lighter than ours, but it has got a good deal of speed. McDonald in centre, and Cameron, left wing, are two very effective forwards. Cameron looks like a recruit for senior ranks before very long. A. Kendall on defence also put up a good game on both ends of the ice.

The game was rough in spots, which neither team can be much blamed for. The ice was very keen and all the men found considerable difficulty in stopping up, with the result that collisions were pretty frequent. One of the Timmins forwards, Abbie Kendall, unfortunately got a bad cut in a mixup near their goal, when he fell and cut his face in Gauthier's skate, eleven stitches having to be put in above the eye. It was a pure accident, and the boys of the Falls were as sorry as their rivals from Timmins over the occurrence. Fortunately there is no injury to the eye.

The penalties were not great.—Cameron got a minute for checking Gauthier to the boards; Gauthier got a couple of minutes for cross checking; Cameron two minutes for cross-checking Morrison; Allarie two minutes for swiping at Kendall although he had the provocation of being checked head first into the boards; A. Kendall a minute for checking into the boards; Levine a minute for throwing his stick in front of Allarie as he was going to shoot; P. G. Kendall two minutes for tripping.

The teams were:—
Iroquois Falls Position Timmins
McCann Goal Brewer
Morrison ... L. Defence Levine
McVicar R. Defence ... A. Kendall

Gauthier Centre McDonald
Lafrance Right ... P. G. Kendall
McDevitt Sub Desaulnier

Falls—McDevitt 3.16
Falls—Lafrance 4.32
