HOW THE FALLS VIEWS
LAST WEDNESDAY'S GAME

"Score Tells the Story, Except for the Frills," Says The Broke Hustler.

The following is the report of the game last Wednesday at the Falls as given in the current issue of The Broke Hustler, Iroquois Falls' own newspaper:—

The result of the game Wednesday night between Iroquois Falls and Timmins was a victory, for the Falls, as everybody knew it would be, including the Timmins players themselves. The score was 9-4. That tells the whole story except the frills.

Although the Falls team did not play, taking it all the way through, the best game of hockey they have played this year, it was because they were not forced to it. They played, in spots, by all odds the best game they have played.

The defence was the usual stone wall that dashed back the wave of the Timmins attack as the rockbound coasts hurl back the angry waves of the Atlantic.

Beautiful Combination

It was on the forward line that the big improvement was. The forwards devoted themselves almost all through the game to team play, and they pulled off some of the finest combinations ever been seen on hockey ice in the north. Two, three and four men down the ice with the puck dancing backward and forward brought them in clean through the defence right to the net for a shot impossible to stop. Every one of the five forwards was in the game, some more than others. Percy Fahey played the best game of the lot in this respect. His passing was the feature of the forward play. When he worked the puck down the boards he always passed in to the man who had the best chance for a goal, and did the passing before he got in to the corner. His work in this respect was responsible for at least half the goals scored. Bill Brydge, too, when he came down the ice, showed his usual unselfishness as regards scoring and passed the puck to the man who had the best chance.

Passing gets the Goals

Shorty Quesnell scored four goals, and deserves every credit for them, but the score would have been bigger especially in the last period if he had passed the puck to the man unchecked in front of the goal instead of trying a difficult shot himself. We did not need the goals last Wednesday night, but against the Soo we will need every goal we can get, and passing to the fellow who is in the best position to shoot, is the way to beat the Soo.

All the fellows played such a whale of a good game that it is not fair to single out any of the forwards for special mention. It should be said, however, that Joe Chirooski, Lin Fluker, and Steve Yankoski spoiled a lot of the Timmins eggs by their insistent back checking throughout the whole game. Shorty was in great form in facing off and practically always captured the puck.

Defence smothered Timmins

The defence smothered the Timmins attack. For the first two periods Ted Corbould had very little to do for the reason that Bill Brydge and Gordie Wilson simply took the puck away from the gold diggers and sent them scurrying home to protect their own citadel. Both Brydge and Wilson played a splendid game all the way through. Brydge's rushes up the ice and his combination play with the forward line was the spectacular feature of the whole evening. Gordie gave one exhibition of hockey that made the fans shout with glee. We had only four men on the ice. Timmins was making every effort to score. Gordie got the puck and ran behind the goal net and juggled the puck along the boards at the back with a couple of Timmins men trying hard to pry it loose. He worked over a minute of time before he broke away up the ice. By the time play got down to our end again our men were back on the ice.

Unfortunately an accident occurred about a minute after play had begun. McGuire started in. Bill Brydge came out to check him. Both were going fast and McGuire's stick hit Bill an awful smash on the mouth, cutting his lip and breaking the tops off five teeth. Bill had to retire to the dressing room for first aid, but in spite of the soreness come out again and played a whale of a game until the final gong.

The first two periods were a run-away for the Falls. The third period was a goalkeepers' battle. Shots were slammed in both on Seully and Corbould from center and the sides. Some of them had to trickle through, but both men deserved all the cheering they got for their magnificent stops.

Not Crazy Over Referee

It was Spike Hennessy's first appearance as a referee on Iroquois Falls ice, and no one here is wildly enthusiastic about him. In the first period the Falls certainly got the worst of the decisions, and in the Soo games we need a man for referee who will protect both teams and give both teams a square deal. Speck Bailey who assisted him, proved satisfactory, as he has done every time he has been here this year.

The teams were:—

Iroquois Falls		Wilson
Brydge	Corbould	Chirooski
Yankoski		Fluker
Fahey	Quesnell
	X X X
Keeley	Cameron	Kelly
Brennan		Campbell
McCurry		McGuire
	Seully

Referee: Spike Hennessy, of Sudbury.

Judge of Play: Speck Bailey, of Cobalt.

Falls: Brydge 5, Fahey 2, Fluker 1, Yankoski 1, Quesnell 1, Total 10.

Timmins: Cameron 3, Campbell 1, Keeley 1, Kelly 1, Brennan 1, Total 7.

Score:

1. Falls	Quesnell	2.07
2. Falls	Quesnell
3. Falls	Fluker
Second Period
4. Falls	Fahey	6.05
5. Falls	Brydge	4.45
6. Falls	Quesnell	.30
7. Falls	Brydge	4.55
Third Period
8. Timmins	McGuire	6.00
9. Falls	Chirooski	2.45
10. Timmins	Cameron	4.10
11. Timmins	McGuire	1.25
12. Falls	Quesnell	3.20
13. Timmins	Cameron	.10

First Period

A couple of minutes play was sufficient to show that the visitors had no hope. Fahey was given a rest for his check of Duke McCurry. While he was off, rushes by McCurry and McGuire showed the frantic effort to score while we were short handed. It was in one of these rushes that Brydge had his teeth knocked out. Steve replaced Brydge. The first score of the night come in a little over two minutes, when Shorty grabbed the puck from Cameron and slid down the ice for a scoring shot unassisted. Fahey was still off.

Falls 1, Timmins 0.

Bill Brydge came on again amid wild cheers of a thousand fans. Fahey returned to the ice and Fluker was penalized for a check on McCurry. Cameron joined him in the box for tripping Gordon Wilson. Duke made a great run clean down the ice for a shot close in, but Corbould stopped. Fahey grabbed the puck and started up the boards dodging his way through and passed in to Shorty who went up centre right in front of the nets. Shorty scored.

Falls 2, Timmins 0.

Chirooski replaced Quesnell. Brydge got another penalty and Cameron was again sent off for tripping Wilson. Shorty got in another run right to the goal, and Seully lay down on the ice to stop it. Campbell, who had come on a few minutes before, tripped Shorty and was sent to jail. Brydge and Cameron were each given another holiday and while they were off Fluker shot. Seully partly stopped but the puck went a foot into the net.

Dispute over Goal

The umpire, a Timmins man, with whom there was similar trouble at the first game, here, refused to allow the goal, although it was plain even to spectators well down the rink that Keeley when he took the puck, had to reach his stick well into the net. Play was not stopped, while the referee was talking to the goal umpire. Brydge captured the puck and skated up again for a shot which landed in the net just as the referee rang his bell. The referee decided that Fluker's shot had scored. While the goal umpire said no, both the officials on the ice had seen that it was a goal, so the goal umpire's decision was overruled and the goal umpire was removed from the box, the Timmins officials being quite as insistent on his removal as Wes Turk was.

Second Period

The second period showed some of the prettiest combination play of the night. Fluker made a splendid run down the left and instead of passing to Joe in center sent a swift pass across to Fahey on the right wing, and Fahey tickled the net. It was a great pass and a great shot.

Falls 4, Timmins 0.

Gordon Wilson got a hard crack with the puck on Cameron's shot, which stopped the game for a minute but he gamely stayed on. Brydge, Fahey and Keeley were all retired, leaving four Falls men and five Timmins men on the ice. This was the time that Wilson did his juggling with the puck behind the net.

Shorty Awful Rough

One of the funny incidents of the night was when little Shorty body-checked big Cameron and made a good job of it at that. He got the puck and started down the ice, passing it to Fahey, who continued the journey down the right wing. Bill Brydge who had gone up with Shorty was in center and Fahey passed it in to him for a score. It was another beautiful
