DEATH OF MRS. J. HOGG AT DOME LAST WEEK

Friends of the family last week learned with very sincere regret of the death of Mrs. James Hogg, the sad event taking place on Tuesday evening at the home of her son, Mr. Alex Hogg, Dome Mines. The late Mrs. Hogg had been ailing for about a year and so her death was not altogether unexpected yet it came as a serious blow to all who knew her. The late Mrs. Hogg was well-known and very highly esteemed in the Camp and regret at her death will be very general and sincere. Her husband, the late James Hogg, died about nine years ago, shortly after the family came to the Camp from Scotland. Three sons, Thomas, of Iroquois Falls, Alex. of the Dome, and James, also of the Dome and two daughters, Mrs. Ben Curtis, of the Dome, and Miss Mina, at home, survive and to these the sympathy of all will go out in their loss. The late Mrs. Hogg was about 67 years of age. The funeral took place at Timmins cemetery, Rev. Mr. McVitty conducting services at the house before the funeral left for Timmins.

Telephore Guidon, George Smith and Maurice Credeau, arrested in connection with the recent "riots" in Sudbury when groups of unemployed men visited cafes and took food, as well as damaging property, were last week sentenced to terms in jail, the last named for seven days and the other two for not less than two months or more than one year. The evidence at the trial showed these three, particularly Guidon and Smith, to be ringleaders in the trouble.
