

South Porcupine Items of Interest

Mr. J. A. Mieson, of Porcupine, was a visitor in town this week.

Mr. Alfred R. Mill, of Boston Creek, was registered at the King George Hotel on Thursday, February 17th.

Mr. Jas. Woodings, of Englehart, was a visitor in camp this week.

Mr. George J. Miller and staff of the Miracle Mines arrived safely in camp after a very hard trip through the bush.

Mr. E. C. Ward of Cochrane was a visitor in camp this week and registered at the King George Hotel.

Mr. W. T. Martin of Ottawa was visiting the camp this week as a guest at the King George Hotel.

Mr. H. Rothschild of Cochrane was a visitor in camp this week on business.

Miss Olive Barry left camp on Monday, to spend her vacation in Haileybury. She will most likely visit Toronto before her return.

Mrs. J. Monaghan, of the Dome Mines, left camp last week for an extended trip to Toronto.

Mr. George Miller, of the Miracle Mines, left camp on Tuesday for a short visit to the new Miller-Independence properties at Boston Creek.

The Southenders have been enjoying some very good skating at the rink during the past week, and it is hoped this sport will continue for the balance of the favorable weather.

Among the boys who enlisted on Sunday evening, were Prof. Eugene P. Colombo, C. J. Jemmett and R. C. Vaughan of the Imperial Bank. Unfortunately these three were refused as an examination proved them to be physically unfit for active service.

Mr. Mac Lang, M.P.P., arrived in camp on Thursday, February 17th, after a short visit to Toronto, where he has been training. Many friends welcomed him on his unexpected return.

Mr. Matt. Doirriou, lately employed at the King George Hotel, left camp on Monday, to join the 159th Battalion at Haileybury. The guests of the Hotel will undoubtedly miss Matt, who not only had a big heart, but like the rest showed himself a man by joining the colors.

A Dinner Party was given in honor of Mrs. J. A. Mills, at the King George Hotel, on Monday, February 21st. An excellent table was set for the following guests, Mrs. C. See, Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. House and Mrs. R. Robbins. Everyone enjoyed the most pleasant gathering.

The South Porcupine Orange Lodge No. 1427, gave a splendid opening dance on Wednesday, February 17th, at their new hall. The country dances were the big end of the program. Colombo's orchestra furnished a splendid variety of the latest music and all stayed until the party broke up at four o'clock in the morning.

A very successful Recruiting Meeting was held at the Majestic Theatre, South Porcupine, on Sunday, February 20th. Among the many speakers were Lieut.-Col. Armstrong, O.C. of the 159th Battalion, also Capt. Pullen, Lieut. Macauley, Geo. Cole, N. B. Nicholson, M. W. Gordon, W. Ferris, and our very well-known friend and local member, Lieut. Mac Lang. The latter acted as chairman for the occasion. Colombo's parody on Tipperary was appreciated by all. The patrons of the Majestic Theatre owe their support to Mr. James Fera, who is always so generous in giving the use of the theatre free of all charge toward the good cause. Colombo's Orchestra rendered many patriotic selections throughout the meeting. The gathering broke up at midnight, with all singing "God Save the King."

A Grand Banquet was held in the Oddfellows' Hall on Monday evening in honor of two of the Brothers, Fred Ostrom and Crawford, who have enlisted with the 159th Battalion. Many very interesting speeches were given. Lieut. Lang answered the toast "Anything and Everything," and he indeed revealed many facts in connection with the good cause. Songs by Mr. Cal. Evans were very much appreciated, and by Colombo, who was accompanied by Scotty Wilson. A seven piece orchestra handled the music nicely. Mr. Cecil Culbert acted as chairman of the occasion. The Brothers were each presented with a safety razor. Mr. F. P. K. Gallagher who was present and is also going with the same Battalion, gave a very touching speech. This is the only occasion on which Gallagher was really serious. About seventy-five guests enjoyed the excellent lunch which the Oddfellows spent considerable time to arrange. The party broke up at one o'clock a.m., with all singing Auld Lang Syne.

Cherniavskys Coming To Empire Theatre

There is no possible room for doubt as to the phenomenal achievements of the Cherniavskys in Canada. They have absolutely created a new era in music.

Leo, Jan and Michel Cherniavsky, the renowned violinist, pianist and cellist had a fascinating career.

The press opinions of Paris, Brussels, Moscow, Petrograd, Sydney and Melbourne, Auckland, and Wellington, Cape Town and Johannesburg, Bombay and Calcutta are unanimous in declaring the great genius possessed by these Russian artists.

The Cherniavskys have visited most countries, giving concerts all the while, and heaping upon themselves the golden opinion of half the musical population of the globe. From 1900 to 1903 they toured throughout the length and breadth of their native land—Russia. 1906 saw them in Vienna, while 1906-7 were devoted to London and the English Provinces.

In 1908 they undertook their first South African and Australasian tour under Edward Branscombe's management, visiting the former country a second and third time in 1909 and 1911. They toured all through India and the Far East in 1912, and again in 1913 and 1914, reaching New Zealand for their return visit at Easter, 1914, being back in Australia in June the same year.

When one considers the quiet atmosphere and peaceful surroundings which are usually necessary for musical development, whilst travelling constantly and playing in public give little time for practice or study; but Genius has ever been outside the laws which circumscribe ordinary mortal, and the Cherniavskys have triumphed in spite of all obstacles.

Born in South Russia, not far from the Crimea, of parents who could not afford to pamper them, they did not find a bed of roses in the beginning of their lives as concert artists, but they were not long in obtaining recognition from the public, which indeed came to them at the age when most children are at kindergarten.

Most Britishers find the name Cherniavsky difficult to pronounce, but it is really quite simple; Cherniavsky, pronounced Chair-nee-af-skee.

These famous Russian artists appear at the Empire Theatre on Friday, March 3rd. Reserved seats on sale at See's drug store.
