TIMMINS SCHUMACHER
SOUTH PORCUPINE

Timmins News in Brief

Mr. J. P. Bartleman is back in town after spending a few days at southern points.

Men are engaged in removing the old paint from the Imperial Bank preparatory to giving it a new summer coat.

The L. Stadelman Co. wish to announce that they are agents for Edison Amberola Phonographs and Amberol Records.

Mr. Buckley, consulting engineer of the Hollinger, was in town over the week end, on his periodical trip, from New York.

The Mattagami river is rising steadily these days, and one or two householders on the river bank have found it necessary to vacate their places of abode for a time.

The Marshall-Ecclestone Co. had another shipment of three Overland automobiles on Tuesday. Messrs. A. R. Globe, R. J. Ennis and J. P. McLaughlin were the purchasers.

The young people of St. Matthew's Anglican Church are preparing to have a tennis court this summer. The grounds have already been selected and grading will commence at once.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Matthew's Church will be held at Mrs. Skavlem's on Thursday, May 4, at 3 o'clock. All women connected with the Church are invited to attend.

Henry Mueller is back in town after consulting physicians in Toronto regarding his knee which was injured a couple of months ago. He also paid a visit to his home in New York State during his absence.

A "Tea" will be given by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Matthew's Church, at the residence of Mrs. Hugh B. Lee, west side of Tamarack street, on Saturday evening, May 6th, from 8 to 10 o'clock. Light refreshments will be sold. The Bishop will be the guest of honor.

The 159th Platoon at South Porcupine is busily engaged in kicking the football, while the locals are busy with the baseball, and it is suggested that the two platoons get together and play home and home games of each one's favorite pastime.

Mr. W. Smith is now looking after the real estate section of E. G. Dickson's office in Timmins. Mr. Simms, who previously devoted his time to that branch is now handling the stocks, as well as supervising the real estate and insurance business.

The men of the 159th Battalion wish to thank Mrs. A. W. Reid and Mrs. H. Darling for the interest they manifested in connection with the dance held last week. The programs and bon-bon caps represented a lot of tedious and painstaking work on their part. The soldiers also wish to thank all others who in any way assisted in the affair.

The Bishop of Moosonee will be the preacher in St. Matthew's Church next Sunday morning and evening. At the morning service the church will be consecrated and in the evening his Lordship will hold a confirmation. It is expected that a large congregation will be present to meet the Bishop.

Word has been received here of the death of Fred Warrington, on Wednesday last, at the Weston Sanitarium. The deceased will be well remembered in the North Country, having been employed by the Imperial Oil Company at South Porcupine. He was also a member of the I.O.O.F. The remains were laid to rest by the Masonic Order of Haileybury, he having been a member of that lodge.
