FRIDAY, JUNE 25TH.

PORCUPINE'S GREAT FUTURE.

To those who have kept in touch with the Porcupine Gold camp since its first and subsequent days before the advent of the railroad the development in so short a time to the stage which it has reached to-day is truly astonishing.

That this development has by no means reached its climax is admitted by all and sundry who are cognizant of its possibilities in the rich mineral producing line and the day is not far distant, even in the opinion of most conservative mining men, when operations will be carried out on a much more extensive scale than is the case at present.

There is one aspect however which probably a good many are apt to overlook in considering the various advantages which will eventually be derived from the further opening up of many properties, at present not being worked, but which are known to possess every reliable indication of gold bearing material and some of which may yet be ranked among the largest producers in the world.

This aspect is in regard to the exceptional climatic conditions, its transportation facilities and its sources of supply of water and electric power. Added to this also is the large supply of labor available.

The average life of a South African gold mine is generally placed at from ten to twenty years and while labor conditions are favorable the heat is terrific.

To the other extreme are conditions seen in Alaska where the extreme cold and transportation difficulties prove the most serious obstacles to contend with, while here, also, labor cannot be secured so easily.

But in the Porcupine camp there are none of these difficulties to be faced. The railway comes right into the centre of the gold field; there is an excellent supply of both water and plentiful electrical conveniences while there is no lack of labor.

Combining all these advantages and adding them to the one chief proviso—the presence of gold—there is only left one main point on which the development of the camp relies and that is sufficient capital investment to make those numerous standing properties into working and remunerative concerns.

That this will soon be taken up by those in a position to handle the project right is considered definite by men qualified to predict capably and honestly but before it is actually brought about the contemplative ones with the necessary capital must be convinced.

That facts can be given to carry this conviction is not the difficulty. They must be given out and laid before the proper parties. The camp does not need one of those lightning booms or boostings. All that is necessary is the presentation of truth, substantiated by the very best and reliable authorities and when this is done Porcupine will become one of, if not the greatest and most lucrative gold camps in the world.

PROTECT THE CHILDREN.

Parents should appreciate and assist the campaign for the protection of their children now being carried on by the Ontario Safety League.

In this department of its work the League operates largely through the schools.

It has just sent out illustrated hand-bills, warning boys and girls against crossing streets except at corners, against crossing corners diagonally, against "catching-on-behind" wagons and other vehicles.

There is a caution about the careless use of matches. It is urged that in a land abounding in lakes and rivers every boy and girl should early be taught to swim.

A few lessons in the art are likely to prove invaluable before many years have passed over their heads.

Adults, who are so careless as needlessly risk their own lives or earning capacity, are guilty of a grave offence against their families and the community.

They are equally responsible for the safeguarding of their own children's lives and limbs.

Parents are now asked by the Safety League carefully to instruct their boys and girls about how to get on and off street cars, and how to avoid ordinary dangers at home and in public thoroughfares. "Stop, look, listen," is one of the League's favorite phrases.

The organization is laboring earnestly and probably with considerable effect to decrease the number of accidents to juveniles, particularly on the streets.

COMMODIOUS NEW HOTEL ERECTED AT SCHUMACHER

Many of the early day participants in the rush to the Porcupine Gold Camp will recollect the Murphy House which was situated at Golden City before the big fire of 1911 and interest will be created in knowing that this same building was recently taken down piece by piece and transferred to Schumacher.

It has now been entirely re-constructed and is to be opened as an hotel under the management of H. Bourchonelle.

The name of the new structure will be the Paris Hotel and one of the special lines will be that relating to the entering. It is being arranged to have the dining room open for the late train at night from the south so that any visitors wishing to transact business or otherwise interested in the immediate vicinity of Schumacher will be able to find facilities not heretofore existing.

The hotel is quite close to the station and as a guarantee of the quality of meals to be provided it is only sufficient to mention that this department will be under the supervision personally of Mr. Robert Gordon who, for over the past twelve months has been with Mr. J. Brisson at the Regina Lumber in Timmins. Mr. Gordon has made many friends and an excellent reputation for the class of work he is about to undertake at the Paris Hotel.

E. T. REGNALL JOINS BENEDICT RANKS

Without letting any of his friends know of his ultimate intention to change his ways from being a bachelor and "take unto himself a wife" R. T. Regnall, formerly of the Dome Mine and now of the McIntyre, slipped away presumably for his summer vacation to his home town, Attleboro, Massachusetts, a little over a week ago. He was married there to Miss Elizabeth B. Gow and word of the ceremony was received in camp by wire this week. The hearty congratulations of his many friends will be extended to Mr. Regnall on his return.

WEEKLY POLICE CALENDAR
EXCEPTIONALLY SMALL

On his customary weekly visit to the gold camp to deal with cases requiring his attention, Magistrate Atkinson found a very small calendar to dispose of both at South Porcupine and Timmins yesterday. There was a drunk and disorderly case at the South End and a few applications for release of liquor which had been held by the authorities prior to proper proof as to ownership being given.

The Magistrate was accompanied this week by Inspector Morrison of the License Department from Toronto and Inspector Blackwell, of Haileybury.

SOUTH END C.O.D.F. BALL A DECIDED SUCCESS

Ladies Refreshment Booth Raised
Good Sum For Local Red Cross Society

The dance held by the South Porcupine Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters in the Oddfellows Hall on Wednesday was an unqualified success in every way and the arrangements generally reflected every credit on those responsible.

In response to the large number of invitations sent out over a hundred guests were present and a programme of music rendered by Wilson's orchestra in their usual very efficient manner.

Perhaps the most striking point to attract the attention on entering the hall was the tasteful decorations of the vestibule itself. Here, thanks to the energies of Messrs. Harry Wilson and W. Higham, the space available had been transformed into a pretty picture by the aid of flags and ensigns draped round the walls and utilized to decorate a stand presided over by Miss Skinner, Miss Devine and Miss House for the purpose of supplying refreshments and ice cream.

Small electric globes of a novel nature were brought into requisition and with the current turned on the spectacle was one which drew forth many expressions of admiration at the effect accomplished.

To the three ladies named every praise is due as their efforts in raising funds towards the Local Red Cross Fund resulted in the splendid sum of about $35 being raised.

The dance hall itself was also decorated with Union Jacks and other national insignias and the floor could not have been in better condition for the terpsichorean purpose of those assembled.

Among those present were:—Mr. and Mrs. Croskey, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Black, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Can, Mr. and Mrs. Rapsey, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Rayeroff, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Sky, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie, Mrs. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Tompkinson, Mrs. House, Mrs. Kaeding, Mrs. D. A. Trood, Mrs. A. C. Brown, Mrs. Miller, Miss Mabel Morgan, Miss Marjorie McNamara, Miss Marnie Doeker, Miss Francis Tripp, Miss Frances, Miss L. Stevens, Miss Lang, Miss Stalling, Miss Anna Campbell, Miss Ida Devine, Miss S. E. Skinner, Miss Ethel Miller, Miss Brown, and Messrs. Geo. Murray, Carvett, Acton, Joe Alexander, Bert Trisby, Bert Cattle, H. Baiton, C. A. Culbert, Harry Wilson, W. Higham, W. Hatch, Ronah, W. Haimar, E. B. Baxley, Miller, Pearce, Gallaher, J. C. Watson and A. C. White.

OUR LETTER BOX

TIMMINS TRADESMEN AND SPOT CASH BUSINESS
Timmins, June 23, 1915

The Editor,
Porcupine Advance:
Sir:—According to report in town during the past few days the local tradesmen are considering the matter of demanding cash payments for goods sold to residents and abolishing credit altogether. Before this is done surely some other plan could be adopted so that those in town who have the best of records for prompt payment every month and are good customers may not have to bear the inconveniences caused through the faults of others.

My object in writing this letter is to suggest that instead of deciding on doing away with credit those same business men get together and consult the management of the various mines with a request that wages be paid every two weeks instead of the prevailing four weeks.

This has been done in some instances in Cobalt and successfully carried out and there are many, including myself, who think that if the matter was properly laid before the right people concerned in the matter such strong arguments could be brought to bear in its favor that it might be accomplished. At any rate it is worth trying out. Perhaps some of your tradesmen readers will take the point up with their fellow business men when next they meet.

Yours, etc.,
A Timmins Householder.
