Orangemen are having an inning today at the north end. Athletic sports, music and refreshments comprise an edifying program. And then there is to be distribution of prizes.

Mrs. Thos. Torrance and children are now comfortably domiciled for the summer at North Bay, leaving here the latter part of last week. Mr. Torrance still responds to the pull of the home latch-string here.

Charles Kemsley, well known in camp, departed Sunday to take the Master-mechanicship of the Cordova mine in Hastings County. He carries with him the good will of all who knew him.

Mrs. J. J. McDougal of Cobalt was a Porcupine visitor for several days this week. Her mission here was one of interest to her many lady admirers and business friends.

Consulting Engineer R. B. Lamb, of the Swastika and Crown Chartered mines, is in the north on one of his regular business trips. He'll rein in at Toronto later, when the hot weather waves roll by.

H. C. Meek returned home on Monday from his last week's business trip south and is discharging the managerial duties of the Dome with his wonted suavity and clock-time interest.

Charles Carr, Eddie Holland and James Todd returned Tuesday morning from a successful brook-trout fishing excursion to one of the many streams which abound with these delectably edible dietary frills in these parts. And they spat on their bait juicily, which is largely why.

For a nominal sum there are parents in this town who will lease row-boats to mere children for a trip on the lake, and some day they will feel the result of their action much the same as the criminal who perpetrates murder. Some of the little chaps will be the victims of a drowning.

Rev. Ayer Young, formerly of Walkerton, Ontario, who was accused by a member of his congregation of alienating the affections of the latter's wife, has been vindicated by the action of the Church Board. His accuser has been ousted from the church.

Evidently the terrors of extremely hot weather fail as a deterrent to dancing when the inspiring strains of Marsicano's orchestra are involved in the make-up of the dance music, for there was a nice turn-out to Saturday evening's cotillion party at Wilson's Hall. Said Jack to Jill, "the music was so fine we just couldn't stay away." So dance they did till Sunday's bar bade them desist.

Stop Press Telegram. Special Despatch

New York, June 20th---It is reported on good authority that a firm called Marshall-Ecclestone has the largest and most varied stock of general Hardware, furniture and mine Supplies in the North of Ontario and are doing a large and increasing business in these lines. I congratulate Porcupine people on having such a go-ahead live wire concern in their midst, and hope that the firm will have the same success in their business as I shall have in my Presidential Campaign.

PORCUPINE

"The Store That is Different"

If the recently reported new astronomical find of spots on the sun is in anyway responsible for this extremely hot weather we have been having of late, we wish some chap with a blow-pipe would get up early tomorrow morning and blow the spots off. It's too blasted 'ot for hanythink.

Hugh Park, manager of the Nipissing mine and a member of the Cobalt mess, went south this week to bring home a bride. His many friends in Cobalt assembled on Saturday evening and gave him their benediction in royal manner, so that he could start off with every assurance of success in the undertaking.

Foot-walks from the church building to the street and from the street to the parish house now adorn the premises of the Presbyterian church. And that they add greatly to the convenience and comfort of the parishoners hardly admits of a doubt; so say we, all of us.

The "garbage man" is doing much to relieve the stress of plague-spots within our corporation limits, but there is yet room for a deal of work on the ditches of Railroad street. In many places the ditches fairly teem with malarial-breeding conditions, and the work of abating them should not be specially urged upon the attention of the authorities to impel removal.

With the thermometer figures ranging well up in the nineties for many days of late, clearly this berg is no summer resort. But be calm—the weather supervisor says showers are coming. And it will be cooling news to know that furs have gone up in price, and that "rat" lined coats are going to cost more next winter, with lynx well up in the lead for popularity.

G. M. Hurd, J. H. West and party, from the Lucky Cross mine at Swastika, visited their properties in the forepart of the week, and went south in a happy frame of mind on Wednesday. There is no longer uncertainty of any magnitude affecting the status of Swastika as a mining camp.
