SOUTH PORCUPINETimmins News in Brief

Miss M. Lynett of Toronto, is visiting friends in town.

Conductor Sheppard is back again running on the local between Timmins and Porquois Jet.

J. W. Mahon made his usual business visit to Timmins in connection with his office here and returned to Cobalt on the noon train Tuesday.

Mrs. F. C. H. Simms has been spending the past week with friends in Haileybury.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clermont had the sad misfortune to lose their ten months old baby on Saturday night.

E. M. Allworth spent the holiday at Sturgeon Falls and returned to camp Monday evening.

The Timmins baseball team journeyed to Liskeard on the 1st of July and trimmed the farming town by a score of 5 to 2.

Pte. E. Cutworth, who enlisted with the 228th at Selumacher, has been honorably discharged, having been medically unfit for service.

Mrs. M. Vaughan, who has been a resident of Timmins for some time past, left last week for Trail, B.C., where she and her family will for the present make their home.

BORN.—At Selumacher on Wednesday, June 28th, to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thompson, twins, both boys.

Pastor Allan of the Presbyterian Church left last Wednesday evening on the National for Toronto.

The Town has commenced stumping the streets and the improvement to Sixth Avenue is certainly worth the expense.

Among the many subscribers which the Advance has received from out of town is one which came last week from Honolulu, Hawaii.

A sociable party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Brown, Mrs. DeLong, Miss DeLong, Miss Peters, Miss Jennett, Mrs. C. Cummings, Miss M. Lynett, K. DeLong, J. E. Newton, Wm. Oakes, went down the river to Sandy Falls for a moonlight ride on Saturday evening. The party left at 6 p.m. and returned at 10 p.m., and had luncheon at the Falls.

Corp. Frank Stockwell was in town last Thursday from North Bay, returning there on the noon train. Frank expects the Battalion will be complete and under canvas at Camp Borden within a month.

Al Herts who was at the Hollinger during the past winter is now resident in Toronto where he has the agency for the tabulating system which he installed at the big mine. In conversation with the Advance he wished to be remembered to his many friends in the Gold Camp. He is staying at No. 11 Cherokee Avenue, Centre Island, Toronto, where any communications will find him.

One of the recent additions to the local unit of the 228th Battalion is Albert Reid of Homer L. Gibson & Co., who has been in the Porcupine Camp for the past three years and was formerly connected with the Porcupine Crown Mines, and previous to that with Marshall-Ecclestone. After a stay of several weeks in Montreal, Mrs. Reid returned home and is at present staying at the Goldfields awaiting some definite decision as to the Battalion's next move; whilst the Battalion is located at Camp Borden Mrs. Reid will stay at Barrie and later expects to go over to Switzerland for the duration of the war. Mr. Reid will be succeeded by Mr. Hugh B. Lee of the Porcupine Crown.
