"John, you never listen to half the things I say to you," she complained.

"Well, dear," he replied, "I have to work part of the time."

THE BRUTE!

He—"My dear, you talked in your sleep a long time last night." She—"What did I talk about?" He—"Why it seemed to be mainly abuse of me." She—"I wasn't asleep."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sporting News

President August Herrmann, of the Cincinnati National League Club, does not think much of the latest effort at a baseball players' union. He does not believe any of the Reds are interested in the affair, and adds that there is nothing new about it.

Dave Fultz, he said, has been working on the plan a year or two. Fultz is an attorney-at-law now, and Herrmann intimates that it could only be understood why he is active in affair. "The new national agreement is much more favorable to the players," Herrmann said, "and I don't think there is any dissatisfaction. I haven't heard anything lately about the players' organization, and of course can't discuss it officially as a member of the National Commission."

The fighting Toronto baseball team, after one of the gamiest struggles in the history of the game is now heading the International League with a good margin and no matter what comes or goes the Leafs can hardly lose the pennant now.

HAVING A GOOD TIME.

"How do you like your new job?" "Great! I'm working in an antique furniture factory."

"What do you do?" "Just what I've wanted to do all my life. I kick the new tables, put my feet on them, spill hot coffee and burn them with cigars and matches. I put each table through 100 years of wear in eight hours."

COULDN'T HAPPEN NOW.

Mike got a job moving some kegs of powder, and, to the alarm of his foreman, was discovered smoking at his work.

"Jerusalem!" exclaimed the foreman. "Do you know what happened when a man smoked at this job some years ago? There was an explosion that blew up a dozen men."

"That couldn't happen here," returned Mike calmly.

"Why not?" "Fause there's onli you and me," was the reply.

Football coaches are said to be looking over a pupil in an aviation school who fell 200 feet and escaped unhurt.

Are You a Crab

Don't be a knocker, speak well of your neighbors and your town, or keep quiet. A crab is a swimmer that goes ahead by going backwards. And you know how far it gets. Don't be a crab.

A DISTINCTION.

"What does l-a-d-y spell?" asked Willie Collier of his 10 year old son. "I don't know, pop," answered the youngster.

"Yes, you do," said Collier, sr. "What will your little sister be when she grows up?" he added, thinking it would help him.

"A soubrette," promptly answered the youthful Dollier.

HE DIDN'T MEAN IT.

In Indiana a man wanting a wedding license is required to tell if he has been married before and if so what has become of his first wife. A Pike-co man filled in that space this way:

Married before? "Yes." Where is first wife? "Gone to the grate beyond."
