to stamp out this terrible crime, which has brought us face to face with the greatest war in history of the civilized world, and it is a well-known fact that the hand that rocks the cradle moves the whole world."

Captain Cook, Chaplain of the 159th Battalion, proclaimed that the manhood of this battalion from the north was unsurpassed in any part of Canada and that under the auspices of the 97th and 159th Battalions they had already sent 4,000 men to the front. "I have been in number of camps," said the Chaplain, "but have found Camp Borden to be the best. The men of the 159th Battalion with 1,131 men, with independency of thought and actions will go forth heroically to fight the battles of the Empire, and as one of the strongest sent from this part of Canada."

Mr. Kennedy, who recently lost one of his sons in an aeroplane accident, in England, said that he would rather see all of his sons' blood spilt on the battlefields of Europe than to have an Honzolleran rule the world.

"This war will be in vain, unless it is fought to the bitter end," declared the speaker. "We are a democratic people, which have produced 5,000,000 volunteers out of a 62,000,000 population. I do not believe in conscription, but I do think that the Government or the military authorities should take some other means to get more recruits, as the more we get the shorter will be the duration of the war. The recruiting methods adopted by some of the sergeants are driving men away instead of bringing them to the cradle." Lieut. Eddie McCoy, who is a recruit, said that he was a recruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Pearce left last week for Toronto on a business and pleasure trip combined. Miss B. Pearce also accompanied, and Pte. Stanley will be with them during their stay in the Queen City.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carr returned on Saturday from Hamilton, where they attended the wedding of Miss I. Carr.

Town Clerk, "Scotty" Wilson was one of the delegates from the Township of Tisdale, who waited on the Nickel Commission in Timmins on Monday afternoon last.

A dance will be held in the Oddfellow's Hall on Monday evening next, the 9th inst., under the auspices of the Khaki Club, and the proceeds will be devoted towards buying Christmas boxes for the soldiers who have left the Gold Camp and are now in the trenches or in training.

turned soldier, spoke a few words of the work that was being done by the men and women of England.

Three cheers was awarded to Lieut. Mac Lang and a God speed on his perilous journey to France.

The last speaker of the evening was J. V. Guilfoyle, local barrister. He felt that it was impudence on his part to try and make a speech after the eloquent address by Mr. Young, at whose feet, as Prof. of Law at Toronto University, he sat for four years. Mr. Guilfoyle was evidently touched by the pleading of the officers in khaki for recruits. He stated that he was rejected by the authorities as medically unfit for service, and applied for a clerical position but was rejected on this also. He asked Prof. Young and Mr. Gibson to give the lie to certain Toronto newspapers as to the work of the French-Canadians in the war and quoted where a detachment of 41 men were sent from this district east and that 29 of these were French-Canadians. The speaker finally told Mr. Young that if he praised the democracy of the British army he must speak of its optimism, illustrating this by telling of the football kicked by the London Irish in the charge of the battle of Loos.

Captain Cook, of the 159th, confirmed the statement of Mr. Guilfoyle as to the noble work done by the French-Canadians of this district, saying that there were over 400 of these men in his battalion.

The banquet dispersed with the singing of the National Anthem.

ASSELTINE—CARR.

At Hamilton, Ont., September 22, a most charming wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, when Miss Ida Irene Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Carr, became the bride of Mr. William J. Asseltine, of South Porcupine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Asseltine, of Verona, Ont., the ceremony being performed by Rev. T. W. Poole. The home was lavishly decorated for the occasion. Mr. Russel Carr, played the wedding march as the bride entered on the arm of her father. The bride was beautifully gowned in white silk crepe de chine and taffeta, with a flounce of rich lace, inset with tiny blue and pink roses. Her veil, too, was held in place with orange blossoms and the blue and pink roses, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Grace Carr, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and her two little nieces, Misses Dorothy and Roma Porter were flower girls. Mr. Harry Asseltine, of Timmins, the brother of the groom, was best man. During the signing of the register, Mrs. C. L. Grisdale, of Edmonton, a sister of the bride, sang "Because."

A unique feature and a revival of the old-time custom, was the christening of Master Jack Grisdale, nephew of the bride. Many out-of-town guests were present, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carr, South Porcupine.

After a dainty buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Asseltine left for an extended trip to points east, the bride travelling in a smart suit of navy blue serge, with full collar and cuffs.

Mr. and Mrs. Asseltine will be home to receive their friends on Wednesday, Oct. 4th. They will reside at the Connaught until their house is ready to move into at the Dame.
