GRAND OPENING OF NEW THEATRE ON MONDAY NEXT

Local Picture House Will Open With Attractive Programme of Local Talent.

The formal opening of the new Empire Theatre will take place on Monday evening, October 23rd. The management have prepared a very select programme for the occasion, which will delight everyone who attends on this auspicious night.

The headliner in motion-picture stories will be "The Bluebird Photoplay," "Naked Hearts," featuring Francella Billington as "Maud," and Rupert Julian as "Cecil," in a five-act drama, which reflects the famous love-poem of Tennyson:

"Come into the garden, Maud,
For the black bat night has flown,
Come into the garden, Maud,
I am here at the gate alone."

The whole of this lovely song is woven into the story Mr. Julian has written, giving a pictorial interpretation to one of the best poems of sentiment ever composed. The poem for picture purposes has been placed in the old South before the Civil war. The characters with one exception have been turned into Americans and the heart-interest and force of this love story knows no nationality or period.

Splendid local talent has been booked for this opening to lend charm to the evening's performance. Some of whom are well-known to the citizens of the town. They are:—Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Darling, in specialty; Mr. and Mrs. Appel, in a duet of violin and piano; and the Male Quartette, Messrs. Joyner, Dodge, Dreyer and Woodbury.

On Friday and Saturday, October 27th and 28th, the attraction at this theatre will be "The Love Girl," featuring Ella Hall and Harry Depp.

Ella Hall is one of the brightest stars in the Bluebird photoplays and has thousands of screen admirers. Harry Depp also wins admiration for his work with Miss Hall. These two skillful young artists are seen together in a majority of episodes in the photoplay, and it devolves upon them to turn the entire plot from a distressful sequence to the happiest outcomes.

A swallow has a larger mouth in proportion to its size than any other bird.

Mr. G. Shippam, who catered at the Masonic banquet on Thursday last, is deserving of recognition from any club or society who may be conducting socials or banquets of this nature. The Masonic banquet was the first of its kind Mr. Shippam has catered to and the manner in which it was handled was indeed an asset to his business as caterer.

One morning, a couple of weeks ago, a very prominent young gentleman was sauntering along one of the streets, near the local fire hall, when the alarm rang. He was called upon to assist with the hose reel, and grabbing the rope he hopped into a rig close at hand, with the intention of drawing the reel, but, however, the horse started up quickly and jerked him backwards off the wagon, thereby causing this gentleman to make a complete somersault. This young man would no doubt be a valuable asset to the fire department with his acrobatic capabilities. We highly recommend him to the department for further mark of their esteem favor.

NOTICE.

The Reading Camp Association are conducting a day and night school in town for male adults during this fall and winter. Persons interested are advised to write or call on J. W. Noseworthy, 13 Elm street.
