

Timmins News in Brief

R. E. Davis, of Pembroke, formerly of Davis & Dunn, South Porcupine, was in town yesterday, on business.

A meeting of the Ladies' Guild of the Anglican Church will be held on Thursday next, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Wilson.

Col. A. M. Hay of Haileybury, President of the McIntyre-Porcupine Mining Company, is in town, on business connected with his Company.

J. N. Bulkley of New York, consulting engineer of the Hollinger Mines, paid his usual monthly visit this week, and left Wednesday for the east.

Mr. George W. Ecclestone, of Bracebridge, was here this week, looking over the sundry matters of his firm, Marshall-Ecclestone. He left on the noon train, Thursday.

The Directors of the Hollinger Mining Co. were in town this week, on their regular monthly visit. After transacting routine business, they looked over the properties, and left on the noon train, Tuesday.

Fourteen lots on Maple Street in the new Southern addition to the Townsite were sold on Wednesday of this week by the Timmins Townsite Agency. Most of the purchasers have signified their intention of building in the spring.

Laub and Stockwell have a nice assortment of Amber and Meershaum Pipes, also Pipe Sets, for Xmas gifts, together with a big line of Peterson pipes. They have also some stunning winners in 5c Cigars, and other lines at various prices, packed ready to be forwarded to the boys at the front.

It is an assured fact now that the Hollinger Mining Co. will proceed in the Spring with the erection and equipment of the new hospital, the cement foundations of which have already been laid. It is intended to provide for about thirty patients, and to make it up-to-date in every respect.

The collector of Taxes reports that collections have been very satisfactory, fully 80 per cent of the total being already paid. Those who have not done so, have until Dec. 15th to pay, after which date they become delinquents, liable to the usual penalty.

A bazaar will be held in L. E. Dorway's store on Tuesday, November 30th, afternoon and evening, in aid of the Building Fund of Byrne's Presbyterian Church. Pastor Allan says that reciprocity will be the motto of this bazaar, the public to be made happy by purchasing, and the Church workers by selling. Donations of great variety have been secured for the occasion.

The Loyal Orange Lodge No. 2552, held their annual meeting on November 22, at the Lodge Room, Schumacher. The following officers were appointed to serve for the ensuing year: W.M., Bro. Wm. Rutherford; D.M., Bro. T. Myers; Rec.-Sec., O. Kabel; Fin.-Sec., Bro. J. Faithful; Treasurer, Bro. A. Pooley; 1st Lect., Bro. L. W. Decharm; Tyler, Bro. Thos. Theckman; 1st Com., Bro. H. Villand.

J. K. Moore the Baker, has a very artistic three story Xmas cake in his window, a donation to the Bazaar to be given on Tuesday, November 30, in aid of the Byrne's Presbyterian Church Building Fund. The cake will be awarded to the person making the most accurate guess of its weight. Mr. Moore is now receiving the guesses, and many should participate in this interesting competition.

H. G. Carmichael of Montreal is in town registered at the Hotel Goldfields.

The next regular meeting of the Town Council will be held on Monday afternoon, December 6th.

Mr. Dayton Ostrosser has gone to Eastern points, including Montreal, on business.

A merry wedding party drove up to the Goldfields Hotel one day this week, the stop being made for the purpose of having a photograph taken, by the official camera operator of the town. One of the guests of the hotel with an eye for beauty, saw an opportunity to exercise his little 2x4 camera which he carried in his vest pocket. He took the pictures, also the address of the newly wedded couple, and promised to send the works of art, when finished. The party then drove on, and soon the real photo man came along with his machine, in response to the hurried call. Who was the joke on?

Anglican Dance Was Big Success

A very successful dance was held last night at Masonic Hall, under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of the Anglican Church. Dancing commenced about 9.30, and the 'wee sma' hours' were reached before the orchestra gave the last dance. About fifty couples enjoyed the occasion, and, taken all together, it was a very smart affair, and netted a considerable sum for the benefit of the work in hand.

Timmins Young Ladies Organize

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Mulheron and Mrs. McInnis met at the home of Mrs. Ellis in order to form a young girls' society for the purpose of doing Red Cross work. There were about eighteen girls present. It was decided that the society be called the D. Y. B. Club. Miss J. Muirhead
