The Majestic Theatre is playing to good houses this week and the special attraction besides their always excellent photo-pictures, are the attractive bicycle girls under the management of Tom Eck, who is known the world over as being one of the square men in amusement and sports. Girls have a good act and please the audience. They will be here the balance of the week.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church held a rather successful sale of home-made candies, fancy goods, and staff of life material in one of the King George Hotel stores on last Wednesday. The women of the church have pledged themselves to raise $2,000 towards the building fund of the church and are well on the way to success. It is a lot of hard work for these faithful people to give you full value for your money you spend towards this worthy cause and they should be helped along by all the congregation and church goers as well as those who have forgotten the trail to the house of worship and occasionally miss a Sunday.

Miss I. G. Beattie, principal of the public school, visited in Cochrane over Sunday.

The management of the Majestic Theatre are doing everything possible to give patrons clean, clever shows and have been fortunate in securing "The Hennings," a very clever juggling couple for four days beginning, Monday, December 16th.
