Provincial Officer Ackroyd had Eli Leblas before Justices of the Peace H. E. Montgomery and W. H. Wilson on Monday on a charge of cruelty to animals. The Officer had investigated a number of complaints regarding the ill-treatment of a horse by Leblas, and a lady who had seen one example gave evidence to the court. The Provincial also had secured a little device which he had taken from the accused. This device was a small block of wood with a sharp nail protruding from it. The accused explained that he used it to free the horse's hoofs from dirt, etc., but the Officer said it was also used concealed in the hand as an instrument for "jabbing." Leblas was fined $20 and costs.

SKY'S MILLINERY OPENINGS AND RED CROSS TEA.

Sky's Millinery Opening at South Porcupine was such as would do credit to many an Old Ontario town of twice the population of the Porcupine Camp.

The Millinery Department was under the direction of Miss M. Caldwell, of Toronto, and in every respect did she show taste and judgment. The Hats were numerous, and many were the designs. Purple, Russian Green, Nigger Brown, were the chief colors showing, with plenty of gold lace as trimmings. All the hats showed excellent workmanship, with the required distinctions in appearance to suit the cultured wearers. Also, on the other side, you could see the largest display of Coats, Suits and Dresses, demonstrated by one of the largest firms of Toronto for the occasion. All the tables were beautifully decorated with the newest materials for Fall.

The Red Cross Society served a ten-cent tea during the afternoon, and realized $52.00 for that worthy organization. Mr. W. Pearce kindly donated a Victor for the occasion and thus furnished excellent music for those who wished to enjoy it.

Gold Nugget Rebeka Lodge held a social evening on Thursday evening last in the Oddfellows' Hall and during the course of the pleasant evening the Rebekas presented the Oddfellows' Lodge with a handsome fumed oak arm chair.

Because he was a man of the best type,—genial, companionable, upright,—Rev. Mr. Cummins who recently resigned the pastorate of the Cobalt Baptist Church, will be much missed in the North Land. There is perhaps another reason that he will be widely remembered even when his visits promise to be only occasional,—he is credited with having the distinction of having officiated at more marriages in Northern Ontario than any other minister ever stationed beyond North Bay.

Ducks are said to be very scarce in the North Land now,—the proportion given by The Haileyburian being "ten hunters to every duck." If this proportion is correct, it might be the best plan for each ten hunters to group together, pick out a special duck of their own, surround it and catch it with a net. In any event, if the plan of the two Timmins duck hunters referred to in these columns some weeks ago were followed, and guns and cartridges were left behind on duck hunting trips the birds might not all be frightened away from the country.
