GRIN AND BEAR IT.

(From The Broke Hustler)

If it's breakin' on the wire
Or it's skinnin' on the press,
If it goes around a dryer
An' gets yeh in a mess,
If yer reels are on the hummer
An' the winder's all gone bad,
Say, Jack, jest keep yer shirt on,
Don't get mad—jest grin.

If yer're cuttin' out yer Jordan
An' the stock gets too darn free,
If yer making 'hay' so badly
That it's hard to breathe or see,
An' the screens are running over,
Keep your head; Don't bunch the job;
Jest remember "Good time comin'".
It's been worse, b' G-d, and grin.

If yer stacks are plugged so badly
That yer fairly on the bum,
An' yer chain tongs slip while the broke gets thick
An' the ole girl jest won't run,
If yer backtender gets sassy
An' starts to bawl ye out,
Why, O don't go wild, completely,
Jest baste him on the snout, and grin.

Think o' days when all was flossy,
When the ole girl rolled around Fer hour after hour and Never brake ye down,
An' ye got a record run,
When "point per pound" was tested,
So dig into the thick of it
An' fix the son-of-a-gun, and grin.

When ye chase an end each minute
An' she's never on the reel,
When yer felts are filled and markin',
Yer all in—jest dead ye feel—
An' the "super" 's gettin' mad enough

To tear ye limb from limb,
Jest think o' the poor d-n Fifth Hand, There's four men cursin' him, and grin.
