THE VICTORY WAR LOAN

In opening the Victory War Loan campaign at Toronto, Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance, ventured the prediction that such would be the interest and enthusiasm roused in Canada by the activities in connection with the securing of subscriptions for the Loan, that elections and election talk would be eclipsed and become a side show, as it were, to the greater national performance. There are evidences already to support this suggestion. The Victory Loan campaign has been taken up with an enthusiasm and energy that indicate the spirit and the temper of the people. The financial interests of the country are giving generous and loyal support to the campaign, in many cases making important sacrifices to secure the success of Canada's Victory Loan. The professional and commercial interests are no less loyal and ready. As one evidence of this it may not be amiss to note the fact that practically every advertiser in this issue of The Advance has given up his space to the emphasizing of the patriotism and profit of purchasing Victory Bonds. When "Buy Victory Bonds" is the pronouncement of practically all Canadian business men, the public in general will wisely follow that slogan. Manufacturers, farmers, workmen, all are agreed that for reasons of patriotism and profit alike, every citizen of this country should invest all he can in Victory Bonds. Only a man who is determined to be different from everybody else—who has the fancy that to be odd is to be wise,—will ever dispute either the patriotism or the profit of Victory Bonds.

NEWS

"THE Much to Canada and the cause. It will mean the providing of the necessary "sinews of war" for Canada continued part in the war. It means the supplying of the necessary credits to Great Britain to enable her to purchase of supplies here, and mean the continuance of good news in Canada. It will mean the winning the war,—by helping finance the war. The name "Victory" well chosen, for the Victory will be forwarded by such loans. The people are not asked to "give" this loan. They are simply asked to lend—at over 5 1/2 per cent. per annum interest—and on the world's best security. It is largely a question as to whether they will thus "lend" of their own free will, or whether they will let others carry the responsibility; but indeed until they are the enemy to give—like

From the patriotism standpoint, from the business standpoint, from the selfish standpoint,—the advice of the advertisers is good:—"Buy a Victory Bond!" "Don't do your BIT! Do your Utmost!" "If you can't go across, come across!" "Buy Victory Bonds."

ANOTHER RACE PROBLEM SOLVED

"The Barrier" by Rex Beach, Deals With a Hero Who Thought His Sweetheart Was a Half-Breed.

Timmins theatre-goers will hail a play by Rex Beach as something that should not be missed for stories of this gifted author have previously been very popular here. "The Barrier," by Rex Beach, will be the offering at the New Empire Theatre on Friday and Saturday of this week. The happiness of the lovers in this play is threatened by the fact that the hero believes his sweetheart to be a half-breed. The development of this situation makes the most beautiful, heart-stirring love story put on the screen in recent days. The play deals with Alaskan scenes and incidents, and tells the tale of a great love crossed by "the barrier" of race and blood. "The Barrier" is produced by Mr. Beach's own Company, and the staging and interpretation necessarily are faithful to the author's ideas. From the press of the cities come very flattering comments on "The Barrier," as a thrilling, exciting and interest-holding story.

BIG SALE GOING ON AT BUCOVETSKY BROS.

As will be seen by the big advertisement on another page of this issue, Bucovetsky Bros. store is running a big sale this week. The event is attracting large crowds of buyers, drawn to the store by the many genuine bargains offered. Large stocks of the best lines of goods are being sold at greatly reduced prices, the purpose being to dispose of all lines of ladies' wear and at the same time offer special inducements in goods for men. The sale closes on Saturday.

TIMMINS NEWS IN BRIEF

Mrs. Palmira Bardesson, of Hibbing, Minnesota, is visiting her son, Mr. P. Bardesson, for a couple of weeks.

The Township of Tisdale Council held a special meeting Saturday evening, the chief and only business being the awarding of the contract for the building of the new fire station at Moneta. Hill, Clarke & Francis were awarded the contract, the price totaling $1737.04.

Constable C. Melnis, the new police officer at Moneta, made a little raid on Sunday, accompanied by Constable Greer and Provincial Officer Ackroyd. As a consequence, W. Ferri, A. Isula and S. Sannia were before Justice of the Peace Montgomery on Monday charged with gambling on the Lord's Day. They were each fined $1.00 and costs, or $6.50 each.

GENEROSITY APPRECIATED

The Trustees of the National Sanitarium Association have established an Endowed Bed at the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives to run for a period of one year, to be known as the SAULT ST. MARIE BED.

This is in appreciation of the response given to the appeal of Field Secretary, Mr. J. H. Dyke, during his recent lecture in this town. $327.27 was the amount of cash remitted with a possibility of more to follow.

There are nearly 300 Patients now in residence at the Muskoka Free Hospital, most of whom are unable to pay anything towards their own maintenance. Such generous assistance as that of the kindly citizens of Sault Ste. Marie goes far towards helping the work of caring for these poor sufferers.

TWO MONTHS' SUBSCRIPTION TO THE ADVANCE—FREE.

Readers of The Advance who have not done themselves and the district the justice and advantage of being also subscribers, should be specially interested in the opportunity offered by The Advance giving a subscription to this paper to any address in Canada from now until January 1st, 1918 for only $2.00. For the same term United States subscriptions will be accepted at the rate of $3.00.

The Advance is the only newspaper that gives the news and views of the Porcupine, covering all the real local and mining news of this great district, and acting as a medium between the people of the Porcupine, and between the Porcupine and the outside world. The average citizen does not usually stop to consider the convenience and the benefit to a community that comes from a good newspaper. As soon as the matter is considered, however, the advantage and the usefulness are acknowledged. The more general and the more generous support that is given a newspaper the greater can be its helpfulness and benefit to the community. Accordingly, all citizens owe it to themselves and to the district to support their own newspaper. Those who are acquainted with The Advance cheerfully give it support in the line of subscriptions. To encourage those who are not already subscribers the above offer is made.—The Advance from now to Jan. 1, 1919, for only $2.00 in Canada, and $3.00 in the United States.

Also, it may not be amiss to suggest that to many away from here nothing would be more acceptable or pleasing as a season's gift than a year's subscription to this paper, to keep them posted as to what's what and what's doing in the good old Porcupine. Think it over, and do it now!

FINNISH NEWSPAPER STARTED IN SUDBURY

A fourth newspaper has started publication in Sudbury. The new paper will be published in the Finnish language and issued twice a week. "Vapaus," which in English is "Liberty," and it announces its policy of giving general news and articles of interest particularly to the working classes. The editor is Yryo Makela. More than 1000 paid subscriptions were sent the paper before the first copy was printed. There are thousands of Finlanders in Canada, and for a time they have felt the need for a newspaper in their own tongue. It is to be hoped that the new paper will do a useful part in emphasizing the liberties and advantages which the people from Finland have secured in this new land, and that its tone will be one of loyalty to this country. If "Vapaus" does its part it may play a very helpful role in the building of British-Canadian citizenship in this land of British "Liberty."

Haileybury had a hot old time last week or so,—a veritable Heliogoland of a time. There were eight fire alarms within a week, but the damage was not in keeping with the number of alarms. In every case, true to their historic record, the Haileybury firemen saved the land at least, so that it may be sold later for taxes, perhaps, and in most cases firemen, true also to their historic record managed to put out the fire before damage was done to any extent. The Dominion Boarding House was destroyed by one fire believed to be of incendiary origin, as the building has been vacant for some time, and yet the blaze seemed to commence inside. The Salvation Army citadel was another building to be damaged by fire in Haileybury. Between $300 and $400 damage was done to the citadel. This would likely be the work of the devil. A number of dirty stove pipes, overheated chimneys, rubbish barrels, etc., caused the other runs for the firemen.

Oh, the sport awakes as the morning breaks, with a head like a load of brick; and his eyes are red in his head, and his poor old stomach's sick. His mouth is furred and he thinks some bird—a buzzard—has nested there; his throat is dry and he thinks he'll die, and there's free lunch in his hair. He notes with dread that he went to bed attired in his hoed and hat; and he sees a bear on his bedroom chair,—but it's only the Thomas cat. He groans and sighs as he tries to rise from his crouch of misery.

"This lets me out from the festal rout,—it's never again." Says he. To the joint he links for some saving drinks, the hair of the dog you know; a few good jerks for the weakened works,—he'll quit when the tremors go. But a slug of gin, when it's safe within, calls loud for a running mate; and the poor old sport takes another snort, and hits up the same old gait. And the sport awakes when the morning breaks as sick as a gland, all on se; his eyes are ready sent to Toronto, N.B.—No unauthorized publication of this notice will be paid for.
