Timmins News in Brief

BORN—In Timmins, on Tuesday, January 15th, 1918, to Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Luxton, a son.

Miss Olive McGuire has left for a month's vacation at Toronto, Tilsonburg and Orangeville.

Councillor Chas. Pierce was called to the West last week by the death of his father, Mr. Jacob Pierce, one of the pioneers of the northwest.

Owing to storms in the south Sunday's National was cancelled this week. As a consequence there were no Toronto papers reached here Monday evening.

The Military Medical Examining Board was again sitting at the Rink yesterday and to-day for the convenience of those called under the first class of the Military Service Act.

A cablegram received last week in Toronto gave the encouraging news that Pte. Arthur C. Arnoldi, brother of Mrs. Dr. McInnis, of Timmins, had been exchanged to Switzerland. Pte. Arnoldi has been a prisoner of war in Germany since May, 1915.

The Fire Brigade had a little run on Monday at noon, the cause being a chimney fire on Sixth Avenue. The work of the brigade was not required however, as the blaze was under control in a few minutes after some neighbors had noted the sparks flying.

Lieut. W. T. Montgomery, brother of Mr. H. E. Montgomery, Town Clerk and Treasurer, is expected home to Canada very shortly on Home Defence service. Lieut. Montgomery has been in England for some months suffering with fever and shell shock.

New Liskeard's patriotic potato patch, conducted last year under the auspices of the Board of Trade, according to the annual report of that body just published, netted $288 to the Patriotic Fund. W. McKnight is the president for 1918 and M. F. Pumaville the secretary-treasurer of the New Liskeard Board of Trade.

A lawyer in Cobalt last week claimed that his client must have been sober because the police admitted that the accused Russian "could walk around." Chief Burke, however, upset this by telling the court that the accused had wanted to kiss him. "Any MAN who would want to kiss a policeman could not be sober," said the Magistrate.

"The Spoilers," the Rex Beach drama at the New Empire Theatre on Friday & Saturday evenings and matinee drew good houses though shown here before. What is more the play was deserving of even better crowds, as it was well staged, well acted, and full of life and interest.

The regular meeting of the D.Y.B. Club was held at the home of Mrs. Ellis on Monday evening. There was an unusually large attendance and a pleasant evening was enjoyed. The next meeting will be on Monday evening next at the home of Mrs. H. Peters. Work taken in:—19 pairs of socks, 6 shirts. Wool given out for 20 pairs socks, 5 shirts.

The Town Police made a little clean up on the gaming business last week, having Harry Daehuck before Mr. H. E. Montgomery, Justice of the Peace, for running a gaming house. Daehuck was fined $25.00 and costs. For playing cards in a poolroom, John Antonchuck, Alex. Walehuck, Alex. Rasan, Tony Maluk, Crisei Yessuk and Tom Stechnuck, each were fined $2 and costs.

Mr. Joe Palmer, one of the old-timers in the Camp, was a visitor to Timmins on Saturday. He went out to West Africa on a year's contract, and on his return to Canada was connected with the work of the Air Service in a mechanical way. His description of the sensations felt up in the air are interesting. "When you start up," he says, "you feel as if the ground were flying away from you, and when you are coming down it looks as if the earth were jumping up to hit you. And sometimes it does, at that. After you get up in the air a thousand feet or more, however, the most contented sort of a feeling comes over you. It's great. But the zig-zagging to make a landing takes quite a bit of practice to endure, let alone enjoy. When the zagging down and the zigging up commences, your internal engines inside you start to zig and zag. Something comes right up in your throat, and unless you hang on it will come further. It's worse than being sea-sick, but, like the Irishman's hanging, you get used to it all in time." Mr. Palmer was desirous of returning to West Africa, but as the Military Service Act is in force, it is not possible at present to leave Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Birse, of the Dome Mines, were Timmins visitors on Sunday.

Rev. J. Macdonald left on Monday to attend the Presbytery meeting at North Bay.

St. Mathew's Sewing Guild contributed $50 to the relief fund for the sufferers in recent Halifax disaster. Acknowledgment for the prompt, kind gift has been received from the Chairman of the Committee and from the Mayor of the city.

Owing to the delays caused by the snowstorms in the south, the evening train on Saturday night from the south did not arrive at the junction until about nine hours overdue. As a consequence the mail train did not reach here until about 7.30 on Sunday morning.

Capt. Alex. Young, well-known in the North Land, is in the North on a furlough until February 15th. He was an Ontario Lands Surveyor with offices at Swastika, and enlisted in January, 1915. On the field he won first his lieutenantcy, then a captaincy, and later the Military Cross. He is now visiting his brother, Mr. Walter Young, Mining Engineer.

The body of Jos. Chertier last week was taken from Elk Lake to Cache Bay for interment. He had been working in one of the lumber camps and while going through the bush was struck in the eye by a birch limb. At first the injury to the eye was not taken seriously and when it became painful enough to call for medical attention it was found that blood-poisoning had set in and little could be done for the unfortunate man, who died a few days after.

They have no right to call me at all, at all," says Pete who is one of those from Timmins ordered under the Military Service Act to report at the Toronto Armouries on the 18th. "Why is that?" he was asked. "We'll, you see," says Pete, "although I have lived in Canada for a great many years I wasn't born here and I have never taken out naturalization papers. I intend to go right after them about the matter when I get to Toronto." "Where were you born?" Pete was asked. "Why, in Ireland, of course," he replies.

Lieut. Myers, who returned from overseas to So. Porcupine some days ago, as noted in a recent issue of The Advance, was a visitor to Timmins on Saturday and was warmly greeted by many old friends here. Lieut. Myers came across the ocean on an hospital ship, landing at the port of St. John, N.B. This was the first hospital ship that ever stopped at St. Johns. The ship received word by wireless in mid ocean to call at St. Johns instead of its intended port, Halifax, the change being made necessary by the recent Halifax disaster and the injury then done to the Halifax harbor.

That wretch of a man who edits The Haileyburian actually has the temerity to suggest that all unmarried ladies having votes should be compelled to pay a $5 poll tax, same as the aliens do in Timmins. The proper punishment for making such a proposal would be to put the suggestion into force, and make that Haileyburian editor collect that tax. Timmins tax collector, when interviewed regarding the suggestion, says that if such a plan were inaugurated he would resign forthwith, at once, p.d.g., or perhaps sooner, though he would not mind going round and telling the people thus taxed who taxed them and why he was resigning.
