SEVERAL SERIOUS CASES AT COURT

Theft, Blindpigging, Receiving Stolen Goods, High-grading.—Among Thursday's Grist.

Magistrate Atkinson had an unusually large and varied court before him on Thursday, the cases running from a man suing to receive wages owed to him up or down to the blind pig cases and the common drunks. Pete Gerard presented a claim of $40 for wages due and as the defendant Col. Worthington, did not appear in defence, judgment with costs was entered. N. Perron charged with having stolen goods in his possession was remanded for a week, the "goods" being a rifle he purchased, the said rifle now being alleged to be part of the valuable plunder taken from Mr. Flynn's Camp recently. Two men were fined $25 and costs each for being drunk in a public place and also sentenced to three months in jail for refusing to disclose where they secured their liquor. Later, the men said they were given the liquor in a private house, and they were then released on paying the fines. Gatai and Mack were charged with being drunk. They should have appeared a couple of weeks ago, and so they lost their bail money ($50.), and also were fined $10 and costs each.

Achie Houle, charged with the theft of a watch, claimed that he had owned the watch for two years, yet he did not know how to set the hands properly it seemed from his own first story. He had not reported for Military Service, and was given three months sentence. Later, he got tired of the jail and left here, and the police are anxious that he should come back to say good-bye at least.

Sam Saschuck, who secured $200 in exchange for two cheques said to be worthless, claimed that he thought they were notes. He was remanded for a week to give him time to communicate with rich relatives or friends. A case of illegally having liquor, preferred against Saval Proux, was dismissed. Jacob Freed on a theft charge was remanded for a week on bail. A number of boys charged by J. P. Bartleman with "stealing a shrub or underbrush" were also remanded for a week. Jennie Ross and Mamie Russell were given a week's remand on charges of keeping and being inmates of a disorderly house. Sam Grusha, on a charge of falsifying accounts in connection with his dealings with Mr. G. Capra, was remanded for a week. John Malinka was fined $25 and costs for drunkenness.

A. Biscornet, on the charge of selling gold ore illegally in November, 1917, was remanded for a week. W. Dustin, on the charge of illegally having gold ore in the month of June, 1917, pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried before a judge. He was committed for trial, the Judge later fixing cash bail at $500. Officer Allen's evidence was to the effect that Dustin had illegally sold some gold to P. L. McHale. Dustin's explanation to the Officer was that he had simply carried the gold buttons to the store for a man in a mine assay office whom he believed had a right to the gold. Mr. McHale's evidence was to the effect that Dustin had said the assay office man had given him the gold in payment of money he owed. Mr. Evered, mine manager at the V.N.T., gave evidence showing that no assay man had right to gold he refined for the mine. P. L. McHale was committed for trial on four charges, one of "having in his possession" on January 25th, and the others of "selling" gold ore on June 11th, 16th and 27th., 1917. Bail was later fixed by the Judge at $1000 cash or $2000 bonds and the defendant is out on bond bail. Solicitor J. E. Cook, who appeared for all the defendants in these "high-grading" cases, pleaded hard for a further remand in the first case against P. H. McHale, but the Magistrate pointed out that too many remands had already been granted and that he warned both sides the previous week that they must be ready to proceed. The evidence of Officer Allen included a statement of the gold ore found on the premises of the accused and made reference also to the correspondence between refining firms and P. L. McHale. Solicitor Cook insisted that the correspondence be produced and filed in court and this was done. The Magistrate took the exhibits of gold ore, the correspondence, etc., to place with the Crown Attorney for the trial of the cases before the Judge.

If Thursday's court were busy, the one this week should be a double hummer. In addition to the remands noted above there are many other charges to be heard. Steve Borlinka may or may not find that beating his mother-in-law is a crime. He will likely have it decided one way or the other at this week's court. St. Pierre will face a charge of wilfully destroying property. Leo. White is out on bail on a charge of being drunk, as are also Messrs. Studda, Brudor and Quinn. D. Descharmaux will also face the charge of wilfully destroying property.

Victoria Lapointe, the young lady remanded previously on the charge of stealing a watch and ring at the Frontenac House, had made restitution and paid the costs incurred and was then allowed to go on suspended sentence after some good advice by the Magistrate.

HOPE FOR A TIE ALL ROUND IN HOCKEY

If Firemen Win To-night and If Empires Win Next Game.

The game in the Porcupine Hockey League to-night promises to be an exciting one and there is a general interest in the outcome. The Hockey fans have it all figured out in "If." If the Crowns win, well, their winning of the championship is assured, but if the Firemen win, then the final result will be waited with even greater interests. If the Firemen win to-night, and if the Empires win the next game from the Crowns, it will be a tie allround—a very interesting position. Many are hopeful of just such a condition, and their hopes are not altogether without foundation. Both the Empires and the Firemen are playing the game with a vim and snap that cheers their supporters, and as the Crowns are also "on the job" right along, the games are certainly livening up. The game to-night will commence at 8 o'clock sharp.

BIG SALE AT N. RYAN'S OLD STAND, PINE STREET.

Bucovetsky Bros. are conducting a whirlwind slaughter sale of the Bankrupt stock of Neil Ryan, and good crowds are taking advantage of the unusual reductions and the big bargains. To the fine N. Ryan stock, Bucovetsky Bros. have added the well-bought stock of gent's furnishings carried by Sanders & Petchersky, and the resultant big stock of gent's furnishings, clothing, boots and shoes, etc., is priced so low that it must appeal to the public. As the N. Ryan premises must be vacated by March 15th, Bucovetsky Bros. are making a special effort to make the stock move right out and the appeal of good goods with unusually low prices, regardless of costs or ordinary selling prices, should empty the premises, if the public desire genuine bargains.
