The heatless Mondays are over for the present, theatres, poolrooms, etc., being allowed to open as usual on Monday of this week. East and south spring has arrived and with its arrival has disappeared more or less the fear of a fuel famine. Up in this country the plentitude of wood makes the idea of fuel famines hard to realize at any time. Nevertheless all Canada should be earnestly endeavoring to provide against fuel shortage for next winter. But no danger is realized in a comeday go-day land like Canada until the danger is on top of the land with both NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS
